MARGUERITE FRYBERGER

Mrs. Margarite Albright Fryberger, 71, wife of Ray Fryberger, 416 E. High street, Maytown, died Sunday, June 7, at 6:30 p.m. in St. Joseph's hospital, where she was a patient four weeks.

A graduate of the Maytown high school and West Chester Normal School, she was a teacher in the East Donegal Twp. Schools for many years.

Born in Maytown, a daughter of the late Richard F and Elsie Houseal Albright, she was a member of the Maytown United Church of Christ where she was active in church organizations; the Auxiliary to the Maytown Legion Post 809 and the Maytown Golden Years Club.

In addition to her husband she is survived by two daughters, Jane A., at home; and Joyce M., wife of Robert M. Lowy, Penn Hills, Pittsburgh and one grandson, and one nephew.

Services were held from the M. Hawthorn Miller funeral home, Bainbridge, Wednesday afternoon and burial was made in the Maytown Union cemetery.

NORMAN M. BENDER

Norman M. Bender, 87, of 622 Stoney Battery Road, Landisville died Friday night, June 5, at Landisville hospial after an illness of 2 days.

He was the husband of Annie Sietz Bender. Born in Rapho Twp., he was the son of the late Samuel M. Bender and Leah Musser Bender.

He resided in Landisville 60 years and was a retired farmer.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by four sons, J. Clayton, Samuel H., Norman Jr. and Robert S., all of Landisville; four daughters, Emma, wife of Amos Hoffman, Lancaster; Jean, wife of Edgar Funk, Washington Boro; Edith, wife of Walter Miller of Rohrerstown; and Lucille, wife of Ray Kendig, Lititz; 19 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren; two sisters, Minnie Dombach, Millersville and Mrs. Leah Myers, of Landisville

On the first air mail flight (1918) with president Wilson watching, the plane wouldn't start! — because someone had forgotten to put in gasoline!

Former Resident Wins Scholarship

Christine Durfee, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Harlan C. Durfee of New Monmouth, N. J., former residents of Mt. Joy, has won one of the National Presbyterian College Scholarships which are awarded to young people from all sections of the nation.

Winners of the scholarships have just been announced by the Presbyterian church in the U. S. A. The winners, 77 in number, will be entering in September 29 colleges related to the denomination's Board of Christian Education. The winners come from 25 states and all parts of the country.

Chris started to school in Mount Joy before she moved to Middletown. She was one of only two New Jersey students to win in this national competition and will be attending the College of Wooster in Ohio in the fall.

Chris is due to graduate from Middletown Twp. High School, June 18. Right now she is in Kansas City, Mo., where she is the representa-

Jaycees Hold Meeting at Cove

The Mount Joy Jaycees held their June meeting at the Cove Tuesday, June 9, from 8 to 10:30 p.m.

Jim Gingrich announced that nearly 125 seventy-five year olds and guests will be present at the annual banquet Thursday, June 11.

Ron Hawthorne and Joel Heckert gave reports concerning a headquarters for local Jaycee activities. Andy Reymer, president, has been working hard toward this goal since it is difficult to operate without permanent meeting and storage space.

Bill Hickock and his committee made arrangements for Cove clean-up within the next week.
