NANCY NEWCOMER

Charles R. Gates, II, son of Dr. and Mrs. John S. Gates, Mount Joy, received his Degree of Bachelor of Arts Cum Laude from Yale university on June 8. He also received high honors in his major subject, sociology.

One day following Commencement, he left with the Yale Glee Club and Chamber Chorus on their 1970 European Tour of which he is the manager. This group of young men and women will give concerts and be entertained in England, Holland, Germany, France, Switzerland, Spain, Denmark and Italy. The trip will be highlighted by a visit and breakfast at Windsor Castle, a tea and concert at Westminster Abbey, recording sessions and live broadcasts at West German Radio, Radio Denmark and Radio Suisse Romande. They will receive an official welcome by the Mayor of Paris before their concert and reception at the residence of U. S. Ambassador Watson on the Fourth of July. The group of 54 will return to New York on Aug. 3.

Dr. and Mrs. Gates were in New Haven for the Commencement week-end activities.

Among local college students attending summer school are the following: John Presto at the Indiana University of Penna., Janine Eshleman at Juniata and Cindy Roland, Kathy Ney and Libby Rainbolt at Elizabethtown college.

Several local people were in Dayton, Ohio last week to attend Commencement Exercises at the United Theological Seminary on Tuesday, June 9 at which time Wesley G. Epler of Mount Joy received a master of divinity degree. They included: his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Epler; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Braun; and uncle, Mr. Cloy Hoffer; and his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rice and daughters Julie and Jennie.

Jessica and Judy Sheetz and Beth Gible of Mount Joy spent three days at Stone Harbor beach last weekend enjoying the sun and boardwalk of nearby Ocean City.

Mrs. Ronald Darkes, Donegal Springs Rd., and her two daughters, Kimberly and Kelly, recently spent two weeks in Newark, Ohio, visiting relatives. Mr. Darkes' sister, Mrs. Marlene Mechling, then returned to Mount Joy with her children, Kathy & David, to spend some time visiting with the Darkes family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bitzer and children Billy and Bonnie and Mr. and Mrs. David Martin and daughter were camping on Assateague Island, Md. this past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. James Boulton and children Jeff and Nancy, Donegal Heights, were camping in the Atlantic City area over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sentz and daughters Shirley and Fern, Donegal Springs road, have been spending this week at the shore, in Ocean City, N. J. Shirley and Fern were attending the National Conference of the Youth for Christ organization.

Gary Zeller, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Zeller, Pinkerton road, flew from Middletown to Kennedy Airport last Thursday, where he went by jet to Luxembourg and on to Prien, Germany, where he will be staying for 8 weeks. Then he will be in Munich, Germany, for about a year for study and research toward his doctor's dissertation in music. He also will travel in France, Germany and Denmark. Gary has just completed 2 years of graduate work at Catholic university in Washington, D.C., from which he will receive his degree upon completion of his dissertation.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Connor of Phoenix, Arizona, have moved to Mount Joy and are living at the Ridge Run trailer camp site. Members of the Southern Baptist church, they are interested in organizing a Baptist church in this area, and will be conducting services Friday evening at 7 p. m. in the Mount Joy fire hall. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

Rev. and Mrs. William Groff, Elizabethtown, will be leaving July 8 for a three-weeks European tour embracing five countries. They will be traveling with others from the area, as the tour is affiliated with the Lancaster Theological Seminary. Mrs. Groff is a kindergarten teacher at Washington elementary school and the Rev. Mr. Groff is pastor of the Elizabethtown Church of God.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stark, Donegal Springs Road, were in Cheshire, Conn., this past week end for a visit with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stark, who moved recently to Connecticut from Mount Joy.

Walter F. (Buddy) Rolfs, Jr., who has just finished his first year as a cadet at the West Point Military Academy in West Point, N.Y., is spending a 32-day leave visiting in Mount Joy with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rolfs, Sr., Wood Street. When he returns to West Point, he will participate in a summer camp training program until fall, at which time he will resume his academic studies at the Academy.

ical 51st state. From each Boys' State two outstanding young men will be selected to attend the 25th annual American Legion Boy's Nation, July 17-24, in Washington, D.C.

"At Boys' State," Commander Koser explained, "the boys from Donegal will have an opportunity to learn more about the functions of government. Also, they will get a better idea of the importance of each good citizen in discharging basic citizenship responsibilities. They will soon discover how the quality of government is related directly to the active interest and participation of each citizen."

On behalf of Post 185, Commander Koser expressed appreciation to the Mount Joy Lions Club for assistance in the Sponsorship of these youths to the 1970 Keystone Boys' State.
