NANCY NEWCOMER

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moran spent four days over the weekend at Forest Green, near Aberdeen, Md. enjoying the sun, sand and water skiing. Sunday they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. James Thorbahn and children Jim, Beth Ann and John. They took a two-hour boat trip to Annapolis, Md. and toured the Naval Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson and children Steve, Teri, Craig and Tami and Lori Lucabaugh and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mower and sons Scott and Mike recently returned after a two-week camping vacation at Myrtle Beach, S. C. They stayed at a beautiful camp ground, "Lake Arrowhead" complete with ocean nearby, pine and palm trees. While there they toured the southern town of Charlestown, took a boat ride to Ft. Sumpter, and visited Boone Mansion where the movie "Gone With the Wind" was filmed. The ocean temperature was a warm 84 to 86 degrees.

Just back from a 6,500 mile are Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hostrip through the Northwest tetter and daughter Deborah. They traveled through sun, rain, wind and snow before returning to their home state of Pennsylvania, which they report is their very favorite. Among the many interesting things they saw were "Old Faithful" in Yellowstone National Park, Mt. Rushmore, the Bad Lands, Glacier Nat'l Park in Montana, the Air Force Academy, Will Rogers' shrine and Pikes Peak in Colorado Springs. While in Salt Lake City they worshipped at the Morman Tabernacle, saw Brigham City, Utah, toured the town of Denver, Colo., marveled at the Archway to the West in St. Louis, Mo. They saw the grave of President Eisenhower in Abilene, Kans. and visited a copper mine in Utah.

Rev. and Mrs. W. Lester Koder returned last week from a three-weeks trip abroad. They visited ten countries—Norway, England, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Italy, France, Denmark and Sweden.

Highlight of the trip was attending a day-long performance of the world-famous "Passion Play" at Oberammergau, in Germany. The play is given only one summer every ten years, on a huge outdoor stage for an audience numbering about 5,000 people. It was a dramatic, impressive and never-to-be-forgotten experience for the Koders.

The Mount Joy travelers found the people the friendliest in the Scandinavian countries, and it is there they would like to spend more time should they ever go abroad again. A woman whom they met, upon learning they were from Pennsylvania, told them she had a niece living just outside Lancaster, and gave them her address, in case they should care to visit her.

Traveling with the Koders in the tour party of 40 people were Rev. Koder's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koder and their 16-year-old daughter of Perkasie, Pa.

NEW ARRIVALS

LANDISVILLE - SALUNGA NEWS

The East Hempfield Citizens Organization held their monthly meeting Wednesday, August 12 at 7:30 p. m. at the Landisville Fire Hall. meeting consisted of a talk by township police, about police policy, a report from the sewer committee, and a report from the organization's delegate to the Pennsylvania Taxpayer's Association.

Members of the Mountville 4-H Club sewing and cooking classes held a fashion show recently in the fellowship hall of Mountville Church of the Brethren.

The theme for the show was "Wedding Bells" with the finale featuring a complete wedding party.

Foods were displayed by the cooking group, and ribbons were awarded for the sewing and cooking projects.

The event was open to the public and refreshments were served. Proceeds will be used to purchase sewing machines for 4-H Club projects.

The East Hempfield Township Supervisors recently approved the appointment of Leon Winters, Spring Valley Road, to the township zoning board of adjustments.

Winters will serve the unexpired term of Wayne Brubaker, Rohrerstown Road, who retired for business reasons.

In other action the supervisors announced the approval of a plot plan for ten lots in Barrcrest.

Eight local junior achievers who have earned honors here will compete at the National Conference at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana Aug. 16-21. Cynthia Sauders, a 1970 graduate of Hempfield high school, will enter the treasurer of the year competition, sponsored by the National Association of Accountants.

The seven other Achievers entering are from seven other local high schools.

This year's National Achievers Conference, according to Robert Blanchette, executive director of Junior Achievement of Lancaster County will be the largest ever. Over 2,000 teenage executives from all over the country and ten foreign countries will attend.

The East Hempfield Twp. Exchange Club has won the national organizations 1970 "Big E" award for excellence for the second straight year, it was announced at the National Exchange Club's 52nd Annual Conference in Atlantic Ga.

George Foster, president of the East Hempfield Twp. Exchange Club said the award will be formally presented by an officer of the state district at a future club meeting.

The "Big E" award is presented only to the clubs meeting stringent requirements in efficiency expansion and education. Of the 225 qualified for this year's award winning clubs were required to participate in freedom shrine and national crime prevention week program and at least one other community service project. They were also requested to meet high standards of organizational efficiency and other increase their membership or establish a new club.

A special elementary registration day for new students was conducted recently by the Hempfield School District at its six elementary centers.

The parents of elementary school children who have moved into the Hempfield School District since the end of school in June had to register their children at the elementary school they will attend in September.

At the same day and time any eligible child not previously registered for kindergarten or first grade was enrolled. Any new secondary school student who has not previously attended Hempfield Schools should register at once at either the Centerville Junior high school for 7th and 8th grades or at the Hempfield high school office Landisville. These offices are open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily.

If you think well of those who think well of you the score is even.

Department stores could save a great deal on handling returned merchandise if the manufacturers would stop making wrong sizes.

THE Prayer of the Week

The prayer this week is by Martin Luther:

"We thank Thee, O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, that Thou hast revealed Thy Son to us, on Whom we have believed, Whom we have loved and, Whom we worship. O Lord Jesus Christ, we commend our souls to Thee, O heavenly Father we know that although we shall in Thine own good time be taken away from this life, we shall live for ever with Thee. 'God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.' Father, into Thy hands we commend our spirits; through Jesus Christ our Lord,
