A surprise birthday dinner was held last Wednesday evening, Nov. 4, at Willow Valley Restaurant for Cyde Eshleman on his 75th birthday. The party was hosted by Walter Martin, owner of the two David Martin stores, and the guests were all his employees and their wives. Besides the birthday they were celebrating the 75th anniversary of the two stores. A roast beef dinner was enjoyed by 28 guests including two couples besides Mr. and Mrs. Eshleman and his wife from Mt. Joy. They were: Rev. and Mrs. Lester Koder and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waser. In appreciation from Mr. Eshleman's fellow employees, he was presented a lovely money tree containing 75 one dollar bills.

On Saturday evening, Oct. 31, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Russell of Mt. Joy R2 were hosts for a Halloween party attended by 16 guests in costume for the occasion. They enjoyed refreshments and games. Those attending from Mount Joy were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mowrer, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Madara, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucabaugh and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Drohan. From Marietta were: Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. Ock Brayman. This same group plus their children were among the float participants in the Mount Joy Halloween parade depicting "In The Good Ol'e Summertime" at the Mount Joy pool.

Freeman Naugle, Park Ave., is a surgical patient in the Lancaster General hospital. He is in Room 779.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Heckert and children Michelle, Brian and Joel spent last week end at Mr. Heckert's parents' home in Romney, West Va. The purpose of their trip was to make apple butter. His parents live near many orchards, so the apples were plentiful, enough to make ten gallons of delicious apple butter stirred for hours in a huge copper kettle over a fire.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Groff, North Market street, and their grandson, Stephen Zink, Mrs. Zink and their son and daughter, Bridgeport, in Lancaster, spent the past weekend in the mountains in Center county. Some of the members of the party saw a mother bear and three cubs.

Bruce L. Pennell was presented with an electric wrist watch for thirty years service with the Raybestos Manhattan Inc., Manhem, by Ken Gainer last Friday evening at a banquet for the Raybestos employees, held at the Town and Country Restaurant.

C. Richard Kepple of 3926 Brisban St., Harrisburg, district sales manager for the Nationwide Insurance company, has been attending a sales management school at Nationwide's home office in Columbus.

Dick is one of several sales managers from various parts of the country who has qualified for the specialized training. The 1-week course in management principles and techniques ended November 6.

the San Francisco cable cars last summer, and gave a detailed explanation of what happens at the "end of the line," when the cars must be turned around.

"There's a turntable right in the middle of the street, and that's the way they do it!" he said.

The Malms live within a short walking distance of the Barrens, a famous "swamp" where wildlife is protected, and people come from a great distance to tour the area. The boys and their parents often go there, and enjoy its many attractions.

No, there's seldom a dull day!

Thanksgiving Service

A community Thanksgiving service is scheduled for Wednesday evening, Nov. 25. To be held at Trinity Lutheran church, the service is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. and is sponsored by the Mount Joy Ministerium.

The Rev. Woodrow Kern, pastor of the Chiques United Methodist church, will be the speaker.
