Attend National BPW Convention

Mrs. Benjamin Horst, Jr., delegate, and Mrs. Gerald R. Sheetz, alternate, have just returned from Cleveland, Ohio, where they attended the national convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. They attended the convention as representatives of the Mount Joy BPW.

The Keynote speaker at the formal opening of the convention on Sunday eve, July 25, was the Honorable Martha Griffiths, U. S. House of Representatives, who informed the membership of their responsibilities as members of BPW to contact their State Senators for support in the Senate when they vote on the Equal Rights Amendment.

Mt. Joy's representatives attended the Penna. Breakfast, Monday morning, in the Sheraton - Cleveland Hotel where all convention functions were held. This was a "Kick-Off" breakfast for the campaign of Pennsylvania's candidate for the national office of recording secretary, Patricia M. Gildea. Mrs. Horst and Mrs. Sheetz helped in the campaign by distributing campaign literature and samples of "coal candy from Penna." to the convention members during their free time on Monday.

Results of the election of national officers was announced at the Tuesday afternoon business session. The election was declared official as follows: Jeanne C. Squire, president elect, 1,241 votes; Jean McCarrey, first vice president, 1,233 votes; Marie Bowden, second vice president, 835 votes; Piliari Desha, (Hawaii's candidate) recording secretary, 658 votes; (Penna's candidate, Pat Gildea lost by only 57 votes — she received a total of 601 votes.) Maxine Hays, treasurer, 1,017 votes and Theo Mays, Nominating committee chairman, 1,222 votes.

According to Past National President Margaret Hickey, public affairs editor of the Ladies Home Journal, who opened "The World Women Want," a panel discussion sponsored by the BPW Foundation on Monday night, July 26, "Political participation is the number one priority for women who want to build the kind of world in which whole human family can have a better life."

Discussing the other stumbling blocks to creating the world they want, were the additional members of the panel, Dr. Jennifer MacLeod, Rutgers University, Monica Barnes from Trinidad and (Turn to page 16) everything in the house except the piano, organ and two other pieces of furniture by hand with an adz.

In Portland, Oregon, they rendezvoused with their son and his family, of Lancaster County, who were visiting with the wife's sister and her family.

In Las Vegas the Baileys attended the International Lions Club convention, during which all the countries of the free world were represented in a three-hour parade. The temperature was 110°, but as Mr. Bailey said, "There was a nice breeze going!"

The Mount Joy people visited with a number of friends and relatives along their route. In St. Louis they stopped to see Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Means, former members of the Mount Joy Presbyterian church; at Beatrice, Nebraska, with Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hunkins, Lion Club friends of many years, at Ft. Sill, Okla., with Mrs. Bailey's nephew and family, where they were taken to a famous site of an Easter Sunrise service attended each year by some 42,000 people; at Sedona, Ariz., with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hersey, former residents of Mount Joy; at La (Turn to page 11)
