

Deaths

DR. JOHN S. GATES

Dr. John S. Gates, 64, a Mount Joy physician since 1935, died Saturday, Sept. 11, at his residence in Long Point, Md. He was stricken by a heart attack in mid-afternoon and died at his home.

He had been in ill health since 1968 and had limited his practice. Dr. Gates was well known as an avid football fan and had co-founded the midget football program in the Donegal area.

Born in Lebanon, he was the husband of Elma Roehmer Gates and a son of the late Charles Rupert and Carrie Stoever Gates.

Dr. Gates began his general practice in Mount Joy on Nov. 1, 1935. His Mount Joy address for home and office was 75 E. Main St. He also had a residence in Long Point.

He was graduated from Lebanon high school in 1924 and received a B.S. degree and the Strohm Science Prize from Franklin and Marshall college in 1930. He was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine in 1934 and interned at the Harrisburg hospital.

Dr. Gates entered the military service in May, 1941, as a first lieutenant and was discharged in February, 1946, as a Lt. Colonel. He served as chief medical officer of the U.S. Armed Forces Induction Station, Baltimore, Md.; post surgeon at the New Cumberland Army Depot, and chief medical officer at Fort Meade Personnel Center.

He also was with the U. S. Public Health Service as a Lt. Commander, until 1949.

He was an active member of the Lancaster General Hospital Staff until 1968; was medical director of Donegal high school's athletic program and was the former health and safety chairman for the Western District, Lancaster County Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Dr. Gates was a member of the Lutheran faith and as a Republican, served one term on the Mount Joy borough council.

He was a member of Post 185, American Legion, Mount Joy; life member of Friendship Fire Co. No. 1, Mt. Joy; Lancaster City and County Medical Society; Pennsylvania Medical Society; American Medical Assn.; BPOE Lodge 631, Lebanon; Lincoln Republican Club, Lebanon; Upper Chesapeake Watershed Assn.; Cecil County SPCA, and Hacks Point Volunteer Fire Co.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, John Edward, New Castle, Del., and
