mountain!

As we have said before, Sico Park is beautiful in October! It's a shame the picnic season is over then.

We spent an hour or so down there last week, and it was an oasis of peace. All was quiet except the chattering of the jays and the crows.

A few yellow leaves were falling, and three or four ducks were swimming around in the creek. Otherwise there was nothing moving at all.

Honeysuckle was in bloom along the banks of the creek. The grass was green, the undergrowth in the little woods across the creek was turning red and brown.

It was lovely. But in another week or two it will be even prettier! Then would be a good time to walk the levee around the park, savoring the colors, the autumn smells and the "bright blue weather" of October.

lot of them—had been keeping their eyes turned toward the sale Saturday of the Mummau farm (south of Donegal high school). It brought $1,165 per acre.

The next test of the same nature and one which is the subject of much speculation is the Keller farm (Donegal church neighborhood), which comes up for public sale on Tuesday, Oct. 12.

Power Line Cut As Auto Crashes

A power interruption of more than a half hour blanketed 16 to 18 hundred local users on Thursday, Sept. 30, when an auto went out of control and sheared off a utility pole at the Eberle cemetery curve on the Marietta pike.

The borough was in a "turmoil" for a time during the period. Firemen were needed at the scene but the accident had cut off power to the firemen and there was no auxiliary electricity. The fire bell dinged and fire trucks moved up and down Main street collecting firemen as best they could. Later, controls which had been activated sounded long and loud when power was restored.

The pole was knocked down by a car operated by Richard A. Foote Jr., Lititz R4, age 17. His vehicle also hit a parked car. He was not seriously injured but the cars were badly damaged.

Without difficulty, Manheim Township's raging Blue Streaks ground out their 4th victory of the season Saturday afternoon, clipping Donegal, 28-0, and keeping the way open for a county championship.

The visiting Streaks took the opening kick and in the first series of play went more than 70 yards to a TD. From there on it was a matter of fattening the score. Donegal's best thrusts of the wet afternoon were stopped by fumbles and interceptions.
