This week Ruhl's Drug Store on Main street in Manheim announces the opening of its annual Christmas contest.

Rules state that parents may enroll any child to age 16. After 2 weeks enrollment period, voting begins. One vote is given for each 1c of purchases. For example, $10 spent would give 1000 votes. Friends and relatives can vote for your child when they are in the drug store.

Many items, when purchased, can earn extra votes. For example, double votes are given on Rexall brand, photo finishing, cameras, films, flashbulbs, boxed and personalized Christmas cards.

Weekly newspapers will tell how to earn many extra votes. The contest closes Dec. 22nd. Eleven big prizes will be given. See ad in this newspaper for list of prizes. See all prizes on display in
