four years as well as serving several years as president.

Joining the board and sworn in by President Charles was Dr. William B. Landis, who lives in the East Donegal township, east of Marietta on the Marietta-Lancaster Rd. and is a practicing physician in Columbia.

He fills the place formerly held by Rev. W. R. May.

Two other board members, Jay Musser and Lewis Bixler, also were reelected following their election.

The resignation of Mrs. Barbara Murphy, a teacher in the Seiler Elementary school, was accepted effective January 25.

Barry McFarland was hired as a temporary professional employe. He has served as shop teacher since Sept. 14, replacing Robert Mills.

Warren Hayman resigned as boys gymnastics team coach.

Miss Victoria Etzweiler, high school English teacher, has accepted the position as girls gymnastics team coach.

James Kuntz, who had been elected girls gymnastic team coach in November, has agreed to coach the boys team.

In other business, the board —Approved a new school building rental schedule, effective Dec. 1, providing for a fee of $15 plus $5.50 per hour custodial charge;

—Moved to review the code of conduct for Donegal students and have a report made at a future date;

—Noted another drop in total district school enrollment in November of five people;

—Heard that Glenn Leib, Donegal bandmaster, is considering holding the annual D.H.S. band camp next fall (Aug. 21-26) at Gettysburg college;

—Learned that the district Science Fair will be held on March 3. (County Fair also will be held at Donegal April 11 - 14.)

additional people will be added to the payroll of the local plant.

Council discussed various aspects of the proposal—utilities, drainage, effect upon the neighboring properties and business—including a look backwards of some 20 years to a similar kind of situation when Jamesway brought a plant to Mount Joy.

No action was taken by council but arrangements were made for Thornton and his people to have additional discussions with council and its representatives.

In other business Monday night council——Accepted the resignation of Park N. Eberly from the Planning and Zoning commission. He was—in point of service—the senior member of its representatives.

—Heard the "swan song" of James Spangler, who was attending the final meeting of his term of office as councilman. He has served on the body 20 of the past 24 years.

In his remarks he made the following recommendations:

1. — Council should update borough zoning ordinances;

NEW ARRIVALS

Alan and Helen (White) Johnson, Marietta R. D. 1, a daughter, Friday, Dec. 10, at General hospital.

Walter H. and Yvonne (Bretz) Johnson, a daughter, Monday, Dec. 13, at St. Joseph's hospital.

2.—Number of councilmen should be reduced from nine to seven and elected 'at large' as opposed to 'by wards';

3. — Mayor's salary should be increased;

4.—Two fire companies in Mount Joy should be combined, and

5.—A borough-wide storm sewer system should be planned and begun.

—Took steps to terminate its refuse disposal contract at the Stauffer farm north of Marietta in favor of using a Lancaster facility.

—Named Councilmen Omar Groff, George Groff and Warren Foley to a committee to investigate reorganization of borough council.

—Set Dec. 27 as the date for a special year-end council meeting.

—Heard a report that examinations are being given for police employment. It is expected that a name will be recommended at the Dec. 27 meeting.

ken as yet to establish financial approach to the project. However, committee people say that as soon as firm design is set it will be possible to begin establishing the financial base.

In announcing the formation of the "Medical Association", a spokesman for the group said that the purpose of the association is to build and staff a medical facility for the delivery of continuous medical care to the northwest of the county.

The site committee for the association has made no decision on location.

However, the committee did report that several locations midway between Mount Joy and Elizabethtown are now under active consideration.

A spokesman for the association reported that the building committee has researched a number of medical facilities in Pennsylvania. That data will be evaluated and used to plan a facility large enough to accommodate a minimum of five doctors and related medical services.

to attend some meetings of council.

Zerphey feels that it is not proper that he continue as mayor when he conscientiously feels that it is not possible for him to function as the borough's mayor.

The resignation is effective as of January 1, 1972.

Borough council now is obliged to make an appointment to fill the vacancy for the balance of Zerphey's term, which is until Jan. 31, 1973.

are: Bill Wagner, Jim Eshleman, Kevin Earhart, Donald Witman, Bill Martin, Jeff Bryant and Robert Shank, Jr.

The community is invited to attend and participate. Take a flashlight and be prepared to sing and enjoy an old-time Christmas Carol Sing around the Community Christmas tree. At the close of the program, hot chocolate will be served.

Funeral services for Paul H. Doyle, Jr., 23-year-old Maytown man killed in a auto crash Saturday afternoon, Dec. 11, were held on Wednesday from St. Peter's Catholic church, Elizabethtown.

Doyle died in a violent one-car accident about 5 p.m. a mile and a half northwest of Elizabethtown on Mill Road.

The victim was driving north and ran off the side of the road on a curve, slid along an embankment and struck and clipped off a utility pole before coming to rest on its wheels.

His brother, James Doyle, 19, a passenger, suffered relatively minor injuries, and Glen Mummaw, 26, Elizabethtown R1, was trapped in the rear seat. He suffered head injuries.

Doyle was born in Lancaster, a son of Mrs. Blanche Walter Doyle and the late Paul H. Doyle Sr. He was an employe of M and M Mars, Inc., Elizabethtown.

He was a veteran of the U. S. Army.

He is survived by his mother, his wife, Linda Byers Doyle and one daughter, Michelle L.

He is also survived by four sisters: Mrs. Verona Carter, Lewistown; Marie M., wife of Leon R. Yoder, of Bellville; Diane, wife of Charles Smith, Middletown; Miss Marlene Doyle, R1; and two brothers, James J. and George L., both of Elizabethtown.

Jaycees Hear Manager

The Mt. Joy Jaycees held their regular meeting Tuesday, Dec. 14.

Andy Reymer indicated that there will be a Santa Claus at Murphy's Store on the following dates: Dec. 17, 18, 20, 21, 22, and 23. The Jaycees are taking colored pictures for those parents interested in having a photo taken of their child with Santa.

Phil Sinegar and Tom Meckley have completed plans for the Christmas shopping tour, scheduled for this Saturday, Dec. 18, beginning at 4 p.m.

Following the gift buying spree, the Jaycees, Joycettes and children from the Messiah home, will be treated to supper at the Jaycee headquarters. At 6 p.m. the group will go caroling thru the town.

Final plans are being made for the January Jaycee week activities. General chairman, Leo Moore has indicated the dates are set for the following events: Prayer Breakfast, Jan. 16; Bosses' Night, Jan. 17; Library Night, Jan. 18; Vo-Tech visitation, Jan. 19; Flag display, Jan. 20; and Distinguished Service banquet, Jan. 22.

Borough Manager George Ulrich was the main speaker of the evening. He reported on his responsibilities in his new position and he talked about several possible ways of maintaining the community's successful way of life.
