Approximately 35% of 4-H members live on farms; 42% reside in towns with less than 10,000 population and 23% live in urban and suburban areas with population over 10,000.

SAFE ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES

Are you getting a "tingle" from an electrical appliance? This is a danger signal you shouldn't ignore. Extension agriculture engineers at Penn State university suggest you inspect the faulty appliance for electrical leaks such as worn insulation on the cord.

The best way to eliminate a shock hazard is to ground the frame of the appliance. The simplest way is to connect a 3-wire cord to the appliance and wall outlet.

AIMED HIGH

Today's mighty oak is just yesterday's little nut that stood its ground. —Grit
