HAS YOUR WILL KEPT PACE WITH YOUR WAY?

SEE OUR TRUST DEPARTMENT

Everything you possess constitutes your estate and it is a wise person indeed who sets up an orderly procedure against the day it will have to be liquidated. This, of course, means having a properly drawn Will and a plan to insure that people skilled in such matters will be available to handle the necessary details. If you do not have a Will . . . or your present one has become outdated . . . consult with your Attorney and then come in for a conference with one of our bank's Trust Officers. It's the wise and fruitful thing to do.
