COLOSSAL CHEESE

The most famous food gift ever sent to the White House was the mammoth 1600-pound cheese which was sent to President Thomas Jefferson by a group of Massachusetts admirers.

Many people refer to the Pentagon, world's largest office building, as being in the District of Columbia but it is actually in Arlington, Va.

PARIS METRO

Paris began building its Metro (subway) in 1898.

WYOMING WAS FIRST

The Wyoming territorial legislature granted women the right to vote in 1858 although national suffrage for women did not come until 1920 with the 19th amendment to the Constitution.

It is easy to be critical. The real test is to come up with constructive alternatives.

A GREAT NEW GIFT IDEA ONLY 2,000 YEARS OLD

The dilemma must have originated with the first man who wanted to celebrate a special occasion. What gift could he bring home?

Perhaps a brontosaurus steak was appropriate in prehistoric times. But, today, sophisticated gift shoppers have more complex problems.

What size? What style? Does she have one? Will it clash with the decor?

Hardly has one gift decision been made when there's need for another: tomorrow's birthday, next week's dinner party or holiday.

Now, thousands of shoppers find their problems simplified as they discover the latest "in" gift idea — the decorative or art candle.

Like painting and sculpture, the art candle has been notable in the long history of decoration, but generally it remained a European favorite.

Until the 60's, art candles here were overshadowed by traditional candles: pillars and tapers. Then youth movements catapulted candles into orbit as a class, including novelty and hippie style candles. Meanwhile, art candles were gaining in popularity, too, being recognized as a quietly elegant gift suitable for many occasions. As Sylvia Robinson, President of Foley & Robinson and a noted authority on gift trends, said recently, "art candles that achieve high levels of refinement and tastefulness are quickly becoming a staple in the gift shop inventory."

So great is this new demand that one firm — Tyhar Candlecrafters of New York — went into business specifically to improve on the European art candle in quality and design while beating it in price.

Tyhar advises the wise candle shopper to look for three signs of quality: a ridge around the bottom that signifies hand crafting, color consistency throughout the candle, and solid, hard wax.
