

Subject: PEOPLE!

BY NANCY NEWCOMER

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Bailey, Donegal Springs Road, returned home last week from a three-week trip through the Southland, completing what for them is a continuing visitation of the 48 states of the continental U. S. Previously they had visited all but Louisiana and Alabama.

In Florida they visited with former Mount Joy friends — Mr. and Mrs. Donald Weaver, who with others of their family, operate a huge watercress business with 400 beds in the Oveido, Fla., area as well as in Lancaster county near the Donegal church and in other nearby areas. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mc Lain at Castleberry, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aston, Orlando. At DeBery, they saw Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Beahm and stopped at Disney World and Cape Kennedy.

An outstanding stop was at Bellingraph Gardens at Mobile, Ala. They returned via New Orleans and Tennessee.

Cub Scout Pack #136 with Cubmaster, Ed Miller, went to Hershey on Wednesday evening, March 15, to see the Hershey Bears defeat the Providence Rhode Island Reds in an exciting game of ice hockey. The score was 3 to 2. Approximately 80 scouts and parents attended.

Mrs. Mary Negvesky is home after spending several days in the hospital last week for surgery. She is employed by Weis-Markets in Mount Joy.

Warren Haymen is currently conducting an elementary gym program every Saturday morning from 8:30 to 12 to be held for the next nine weeks in the gymnasium at Donegal high school for students in grades 4 through 6. Approximately 86 students from Seiler and Grandview attended the first session last Saturday. Assisting Mr. Haymen are two college students, Duane Risburg, a member of Westchester College Varsity gymnastics team and Donegal graduate and Jim Shearer, a student at Millersville State Teachers college. Also helping are several Junior and Senior High students. They are Bill and John Haymen, Steve Wolgemuth, Buzz Haake, Beth and Ned Hess, Chuck Grimsey and John Helmstaedter. Safety is being strongly emphasized by dividing the group into four squads so that individual attention is given to each child. Presently they're working on the trampoline, mini-tramp, tumbling and basketball skills.

Lester G. Herr, president of the former Lancaster County Farmers National bank, and chairman of the executive committee of the National Central Bank, was guest of honor Friday evening, March 17, at the Hamilton Club in Lancaster, in observance of his retirement from banking after a career of more than 50 years. Among those attending from Mount Joy were members of the advisory board of the Mt. Joy branch of the bank, and their wives: Mr. and Mrs. James Garber, Mr. and Mrs. John Melhorn, Mr. and Mrs. John Weidman and Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Rainbolt.

When in need of printing remember The Bulletin.

DRIVE CAREFULLY

TRUCK AND AUTO INSPECTIONS

Sticker No.	Expires
2	January 31
3	April 31
4	July 31
1	October 31

Emergency Medical Calls

SATURDAY AFTERNOON AND SUNDAY

Dr. Thomas O'Connor

NEW ARRIVALS

James and Carol (Balthaser) Winters, Mount Joy R1, a son, Friday, March 17, at the St. Joseph's hospital.

Rev. and Mrs. Dallas Lehman of Hagerstown, Md., are the parents of a son, Eric Brian, born Tuesday, March 14 in Washington County hospital. This is the first child in the family. The mother is the former Mary Dehmey of Middletown, Rev. Lehman, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lehman, Wood street, Mount Joy, is associate pastor of the Hagerstown Church of the Brethren.

Glenn and Dianna (Cummins) Talmadge, East Main street, a daughter, Monday, March 20, at the General hospital.

Named Chairman For May Day

Cynthia Eshelman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Eshelman, Mount Joy R2 has been named general chairman of the committee to plan for the Saturday program scheduled as one of the events for May Day 1972 at Manchester college, Indiana.

The activity will be planned around this year's May Day theme "Treasure Island". Highlighting the two-day observance are the annual May Day parade of floats prepared by various campus organizations and coronation of the May Day Queen with her court of attendants.

Cynthia is a graduate of Donegal high school and a junior this year at Manchester college.

Capital Elects New Secretary

J. L. Ammon, president of State Capital Savings & Loan Association, has announced that Lee J. Gates has been elected secretary.

Gates, who lives at 3611 Centerfield Rd., Harrisburg, was graduated from William Penn high school in 1928 and joined State Capital Savings and Loan the same year.

He attended the Central Penn Business School, the Wharton Extension School of the University of Pennsylvania, and he completed several courses with the American Savings and Loan Institute.

Since 1960, Gates has served as Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer and Assistant Vice President at State Capital.

He is married to the former Emma R. Green.

The restaurant with the world's longest menu is Oskar David's in Copenhagen, Denmark. The menu, which lists 178 dishes, is 3 feet 9 1/2 inches long!

Churches Set Good Friday Service

The Interchurch Council of Mount Joy will sponsor the Annual Good Friday Service at Trinity Lutheran church, West Main street on March 31, from 1 to 3 o'clock.

The following clergymen will participate in the service: The Reverend Messers, Roy J. Peterman, Donald M. Whitesel, Stephen W. Getty, Jacob Replogle, Woodrow W. Kern and Clair S. Wagner, Jr.

Everyone is most cordially invited to attend.

Airman Steven N. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus N. Miller of 52 North Charlotte street, Manheim, has completed his U. S. Air Force basic training at the Air Training Command's Lackland AFB, in Texas. He is remaining at Lackland for training in the communications - electronics systems. Airman Miller is a 1970 graduate of Manheim Central high school. His wife, Nanci, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Wagner of 116 E. Donegal St., Mount Joy.

'The Children Are Loveable'

"It is easy to get along with retarded children," Mrs. Sharon Payne said as she spoke at the monthly LARC meeting, on Monday evening, March 13. "The children are loveable, and enjoy a show of affection."

In teaching at the Mechanics Grove Center, Mrs. Payne uses her volunteers and her aid because the children cannot receive her individual attention. Those who attended the meeting heard Mrs. Payne and saw a film of children in action.

Recreation activities will include swimming at the Manheim Township high school pool beginning April 14, thru May 26, on Friday evenings from 7 to 8:30. Every retarded child is welcome.

Summer camps will be held at Black Rock for ages 6 to 10, July 5 thru 8; ten years and up may attend July 21 through 29. Camp Swatara will be having a camp June 11 through 17, and June 18 through 24. Applications to any of these camps may be made in writing to the LARC office, 630 Janet Ave., Lancaster; Earl Mellinger, 11 Plymouth Avenue, Lancaster; George Weyer, 191 Martha Avenue, Lancaster; or Walter Espenshade, 113 College Ave., Elizabethtown, Pa.

EASTER MUSIC PROGRAM AT FLORIN CHURCH

All three choirs of the Florin Church of the Brethren will participate in a special music program on Palm Sunday evening in the church sanctuary, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The program will consist of traditional favorites of the holy season, augmented by several duets and special numbers. The main presentations will be by the Senior Mixed Choir along with the Men's Chorus, both directed by Rev. James M. Eshelman. The Children's Choir, directed by Mrs. Eshelman, also will participate. The organist will be Miss Florence Gorb, and the pianists will be Mrs. Robert Kline and Mrs. Glenn Greiner.

The public is invited.

kind operates.

The owners of the big auto center, Cox Broadcasting Co., have ten other big centers in various parts of the country.

Starting in 1946, the Manheim sale every week and sometimes oftener for special events, brings hundreds and hundreds of automobile dealers to the big center along Route 72.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. Robert Brackbill.

Hempfield Faculty Exhibit

Hempfield faculty members will put their talents on display in the Centerville Junior high school gymnasium on the nights of March 24 & 25 at 7:30 o'clock to raise money for the Scholarship Fund.

The elementary teachers will be featured at the Friday night performance in a variety of events; such as volleyball, basketball, egg-throwing, pie-tossing, and other games. The Saturday night stars will be faculty members of the junior and senior high schools who will participate in a series of similar attractions.

Hempfield Education Association's president, James D. McInachan, reported that all proceeds from these two events will be used to provide scholarships to members of the senior class who prepare for the teaching profession. Annual events of this nature have permitted the H E A to distribute more than $5,000 in scholarship money.

Junior Play Fri. and Sat.

Thornton Wilder's three-act play, "Our Town," will be presented by the Junior Class of Donegal high school, Friday and Saturday nights in the high school auditorium. Curtain time will be 8 o'clock

William Lenox, who plays the stage manager, and Lynn Weaver, who portrays Emily, will be supported by a cast of 31.

Supporting roles include: Stephen Landis, Debra Meckley, Heather Mumma, Gregory McKain, Robert Hoffer, Cynthia Myers, Keith O'Leary, Robert Eno, John Frey, Sue Shue, Warren Crills, Patricia Morton, Dennis Engle, Franklin Haynes, Scott Wolgemuth, Palmer Hossler, William Martin, Sharon Steckbeck, Sharon Zimmerman, William Wagner, Steven Studholm, Penny Spiker, Cathy Drace, Cynthia Halter, Deborah Crankshaw, Marlene Shope, Linda Hess, Linda Stoltzfus, Marion Neiss, Mark Simmons and Dean Peters.

Miss Catharine Zeller, chairman of the English Department is directing the production.

Larry Gillham is in charge of lighting while Wm. Wagner is handling sound effects. They are assisted by Robert Brayman, Scott Zeller, Steven Studholm, Warren Crills and Robert Hoffer.

Committee chairmen are: publicity, Lynn Weaver; properties, Susan Schlosser; costume, Joan Wolgemuth and Linda Stoltzfus; tickets, Marion Neiss; and make-up, Rebecca Shelly.

Honor Society Inducts 26

Twenty-six new members were inducted into the National Honor Society of Donegal high school's chapter on March 7.

The inductees include seniors: Bob Aungst, Paula Brandt, Vicky Brown, Barbara Brubaker, Deb Clapsaddle, Kathy Clark, Linda Grisinger, Mary Jane Heisey, Caleb Hess, Peg Hess, Mindi Liggins, Judy Klugh, Marie Schatz, Susan Stauffer and Marjorie Straub; Juniors: Betty Barto, John Frey, Deb Harnish, Bill Lenox, Heather Mumma Deb Meckley, Lisa Mull, Cindy Myers, Trudy Smith, Sharon Steckbeck and Lynn Weaver.

The old members of the honor society, including Pat Buchanan, Rick Buchanan, Les Engle, Georgeann Fitzkee, Molly Fry, Mark Gainer, Jean Heilig, Drew Hostetter and Joan Little, were responsible for the program.

Mrs. Richard Kohler of Mt. Joy was the speaker.

Mrs. Lily C. Grimm and Mrs. Mary Margaret Peraro are faculty advisers to the National Honor Society.

County Science Fair Set

With the Donegal district Science Fair now completed, the school science community is looking forward to hosting the Lancaster City-County Fair on April 11, 12, 13 and 14.

The fair, which is rotated among schools in the area, will be staged in D.H.S. with judging on Wednesday, April 12 starting at 9:30 a.m.

Each exhibitor will receive a Certificate of Achievement and the grand champion and reserve grand champions will receive overall fair trophies and trip to the International Science and Engineering Fair at New Orleans, La., May 1 to 6.

In each senior high school classification — biology, chemistry, physics and engineering — there will be individual prizes.

Junior high school competition will be in the area of general science and winners through six places will be given recognition.

Donegal's Senior and Junior winners in the local Fair were Caleb Hess, D.H.S. senior, and James Gerberich, ninth grader.

Auto Auction Film is Shown

Francis Cassell of Manheim was the speaker Tuesday noon at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Mount Joy Rotary club, held at Hotellers.

As a representative of the Manheim Auto Auction, he talked briefly about the organization and showed a film which described the way the world's biggest auction of its