The Flea Market was quite successful — all exhibitors seemed satisfied with the amount of sales made.

Special Service Of Confirmation

A special service was held at the Saint Mark's United Methodist church on Trinity Sunday, May 28 at 10:15. This was the occasion for the reception into church membership of the Confirmation Class and other adults.

The Confirmation Class includes the following 10 young persons: Julie Thomas, Debbie Thomas, John Thomas, David Nicholas, Cindy Emehaiser, Tracie Reichard, Robert Reichard, Albert Newlin and Philip Martin. They have been meeting weekly with the pastor since November, 1971. In addition to classroom work each pupil is responsible for a project. They recently took an all-day trip to Philadelphia.

Miss Linda Sherk, who auditioned the course this year, also will receive recognition at the service.

New members being received during the same worship hour are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bubel, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Westerman, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Kendig, Mrs. Charlene Zink, Mrs. Peggy Kellander, Mrs. Debbie Newcomer.

The service will have special music. The pastor will preach on the theme, "Conform or Confirm?" There will be a reception with refreshments immediately following the worship time.
