Sue Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay C. Musser, 214 Marietta street, and her husband, Ed, recently traveled from their home in Birmingham, Alabama to Palm Beach, Florida for a convention. Mr. Briggs won the expense paid trip for being an outstanding salesman with the Liberty National Life Insurance Company. Coming back up the coast, they enjoyed several days in historic St. Augustine before returning home to their 2½ year old daughter, who had stayed with friends while her parents vacationed.

Miss Betty Ober, who is employed at the Masonic Homes in Elizabethtown, visited with friends in Mount Joy on Monday.

Girl Scout troop #32 left early Monday morning, June 12, for New York City and their annual year end trip. They enjoyed a busy fun-filled day of activities, which included such sights as the Statue of Liberty, the United Nations Building, the Bowery, Chinatown, and Madison Square Garden. They walked down Fifth Avenue and did some window shopping at Macy's and Saks Fifth Avenue Dept. stores.

They attended an afternoon performance of a live show at Radio City Music Hall. They toured St. Patrick's Cathedral, Rockefeller Plaza and the NBC building, where they viewed a live taping of television shows, including the daytime serial, "The Doctors" and radio broadcasting. Before leaving the building each girl was telecast on closed circuit TV.

A special thrill for the group was a safe uneventful ride on the subway. They ate at a delicatessen on Fifth Avenue, went up in the Empire State Building and from there headed home, arriving at 10 p.m., tired but ready to go again. Troop leaders in charge of arrangements were: Mrs.

Kenneth Good and Mrs. Merle Wilkinson. Also accompanying the group were Mrs. Ronald Gotwalt, Mrs. Harry Garber, Mrs. Robert Schwert, Mrs. Thomas Kulp and bus driver, Ken Eshleman.

A surprise bridal shower was held Tuesday evening, June 6, for Miss Joanne Newcomer, in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Anna Newcomer. Those attending were: Mrs. Charles Eshleman and son Gary, Mrs. Jay Snyder, Mrs. Gerald Grove, Mrs. Grace Mumma, Mrs. Kenneth Johnson, Mrs. Robert Gibble and son Randy, Mrs. Robert Stauffer and daughter Lori, Mrs. Kenneth Newcomer and daughters Tammy, Wendy and Beth, Mrs. Ralph Snyder Mrs. Gene Newcomer, Miss Ann Fair, Miss Faith Whitehead, Mrs. Mark Newcomer and daughter Joyce.

Spending Saturday and Sunday in the mountains in Perry County were: Mr. and Mrs. Pat Moran, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moran, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Yingst. They stayed in the newly remodeled cabin of Mr. and Mrs. Yingst.

The sixth grade patrolmen of Seiler were treated to a trip to Dutch Wonderland on Friday afternoon, June 9, sponsored by Seiler School and Home Assoc. Thirty-three guards enjoyed the trip along with these mothers who drove: Mrs. Ken Newcomer, Mrs. Joseph Coover, Mrs.

John Miller, Mrs. Donald Whitzel, and Mrs. Paul Shearer. PAGE 16

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Landis and children Andrea, Amy and Kirk, spent the week end in the mountains near New Bloomfield in Perry County. Because of the unusually cool weather they enjoyed a fire in the fireplace and a cozy typical winter visit to the mountains.

Cub Scout Pack #136 spent Monday, June 12, enjoying the sights in our capital city, Washington, D.C. The group of 42 visited the National Archives Building, the Museum of National History, toured the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, saw the Lincoln Memorial and finished the day at the National Zoological Gardens. The highlight of the trip to the zoo was getting to see the newly acquired panda bears from China. They were playful and lovable in their own special cages which were in the process of being decorated to match their native environment. En route home they stopped at Gino's for supper, arriving in Mt. Joy at 9:00 o'clock. Cubmaster, Ed Miller was in charge of arrangements. Also making the trip were the following parents: Mrs. Bernice Mulwane, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brown, Mrs. Jeff Brian, Robert Mark and Mrs. Gene Newcomer.

On Wednesday evening, June 7, Cub Scout Pack #136 and their families, held their monthly pack meeting in 'Schlosser's Woods' enjoying a perfect campfire built by Bob Divet. They roaster hot dog, and toasted marshmallows. Cubmaster, Ed Miller presented several awards.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Kennedy and children Jaylee and Ronnie returned Tuesday, June 6 from an exciting 5-day trip to Florida. They flew from Washington D.C. to Orlando where they spent one day at Disneyworld. While in Orlando they took a Scenic Cruise around the city. From there they flew to Miami. They drove along the Tamiami Trail and were thrilled by an air boat ride through the Everglades. They enjoyed the beach and swimming in Miami.
