BY NANCY NEWCOMER

Mr. and Mrs. John Weidman returned July 18 from a one-week vacation in Spain.

They were with a group of 70 people employed in the sales department of the Pioneer Seed Corn Company with the home office located in Tip-on, Indiana.

They left Kennedy Airport and flew to Madrid, Spain. From there they took several day trips, including a visit to Tangier, Morocco, in North Africa. There they saw the Casba, which is the very old part of Tangier and also took a guided tour of the countryside to see the primitive farming methods of the country.

They toured Malaga and Madrid and attended a bull fight. An interesting trip was a visit to the quaint little town of Segovia where they toured Alcazar, an old castle and saw the Roman Aqueduct still in use today. They visited the Valley of the Fallen, which is a memorial to the soldiers that died in the Spanish Civil War. They also toured the El Escorial Palace.

Before leaving Madrid, the group were guests at a gala farewell banquet hosted by the Pioneer Company and held in the hotel where they stayed.

SUMMER PARTY

The Women's Club of Lancaster County will hold its annual summer party at Overlook Golf Club on Thursday, August 10, from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. There will be a tea and fashion show at 2 p.m. and a buffet dinner will be served from 5 to 8 p.m.

The club, which is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year, has planned many new things for this year's party including an art auction in the evening, a large collection of ceramics made by members and a special table featuring handmade Christmas decorations. There will also be their famous homemade muffins and a large white elephant table as well as the "country store" with preserves and fresh produce.

The meeting, like all meetings of the Women's Republican Club, is open to the public.

COIN CLUB

The Mount Joy-Florin Coin club will hold its July meeting Thursday evening, July 27, at the Mount Joy Restaurant beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

WEDDINGS

HELLER — NEWCOMER

The marriage of Miss M. Joanne Newcomer to Robert L. Heller took place Saturday, July 22, at 3 p.m. at Mount Joy Church of God with the Rev. Ralph C. Warner officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark F. Newcomer, Mount Joy R2.

She was graduated from Manheim Central high school and Millersville State college. She is employed by Manheim Twp. School District.

The bridegroom is the son of Clyde L. Heller, 799 Willow Rd. Lancaster, and the late Mrs. Kathryn Landis Heller.

He was graduated from Conestoga Valley high school and Franklin and Marshall college.

He served in the U.S. Army for four years. He is employed by Ventures Plastics.

One out of Four Are Oversize

One out of every four new mattresses sold today is supersize, either a queen or a king.

A queen-size mattress is 60 inches wide by 80 inches long; a king is 76 inches wide by 80 inches long.

Based on trends the standard fullsize bed, 54 inches wide by 75 inches long, will be as dead as the buggy whip within a few years.

Within the supersize category, queen-size is outselling the larger king by a 3 to 2 margin. There are several good reasons for the queen's popularity:

While it offers almost 20% more sleeping room than a double bed, the queen takes up little more floor space. It can easily fit into any bedroom where a full-size bed can go.

With the aid of inexpensive adapters (available from most bedding retailers), the queen-size mattress can be used with many existing bedframes and headboards.

The Queen is relatively easy to handle, an important consideration in bedmaking and when moving or turning the mattress to assure even wear.

The queen is less expensive than some people believe. For example, queen-size has a suggested retail price of $249.95 per set of mattress and box spring; a full-size mattress in the same line has a suggested retail price of $190 per set.

So, for a relatively small difference, a couple can gain a lot in sleeping comfort.

It is scarcely possible to say too much too often about the importance of living in the "now." You may say: "I'm going to be happy and more cheerful, I'm going to take more pleasure in simple things. I'm going to have richer, more meaningful experiences by living with the highest that is within me. I am going to look about me for simple sources of delight and enjoyment." Then the important question to ask yourself is, "But when?" Tomorrow, next month, next year? Or now!

APPLE SEASON

Apples are the main attraction at most fresh fruit counters this fall and many retailers will be offering apples at special prices. Approximately 65 percent of this year's apple crop will be sold for fresh use and 35 per cent for processing.

"An apple a day in some way" might well be your family's slogan for the next year.
