Hershey Mum Time Coming

From mid-September thru October, the 5,000 chrysanthemums at the Hershey Rose Gardens and Arboretum will be in their never-to-be-forgotten bloom.

In fact, the color profusion is so great in the area that the period of Sept. 15 to Oct. 31 has been designated "Hershey Autumn Colorama."

October is also the month to view the third full bloom of the 42,000 rose bushes in the Hershey Rose Gardens & Arboretum. Intense color and increased size of the rose flowers make the fall bloom one of amazement. The 14,000 annuals in the gardens include 220 varieties and present an enchantment matched only by the roses and chrysanthemums.

Visitors will also be aware of the 75 varieties of American English, Japanese and Chinese holly trees. Of special interest are the different leaf shapes and sizes, the colors and quantities of holly berries and the habits of growth.

Pathways of plush green carpets combine with the deep green of the yews, junipers and arborvitae to frame the abundant beauty of the mums, annuals and roses.

Visitors to the Hershey Rose Gardens and Arboretum are welcome from 8 a.m. to dusk and admission is free. Nearby parking is at a nominal charge

PICK A NUMBER

In Toyota's fleet of 19 Marus, no shop carries the number 4, 9, or 13. In Japan, 4 means "death," and 9 is "unlucky." Out of deference to Anglo-Saxon superstition, 13 is also a no-no.

TEACH CHILDREN GOOD GROOMING HABITS IN EARLY CHILDHOOD

Children should learn good grooming habits while they are young. Teaching children to wash their faces, hands and body properly can prevent skin problems later, explains Mrs. Ruth Ann Wilson, Extension clothing specialist at the Penn State university.

You may have to constantly remind youngsters to wash neck, throat and ears, because they have a tendency not to see the necessity of doing more than the "once over lightly."

Today's hair styles, for boys and girls, with the long hair and bangs, over the forehead, can cause oily deposits on the face and neck if not cleaned properly, points out Mrs. Wilson. Hair care should not be neglected. Frequent shampooing and daily brushing will keep hair shining and healthy.

Daily bathing with attention to knees and elbows will help keep skin soft and rosy looking.

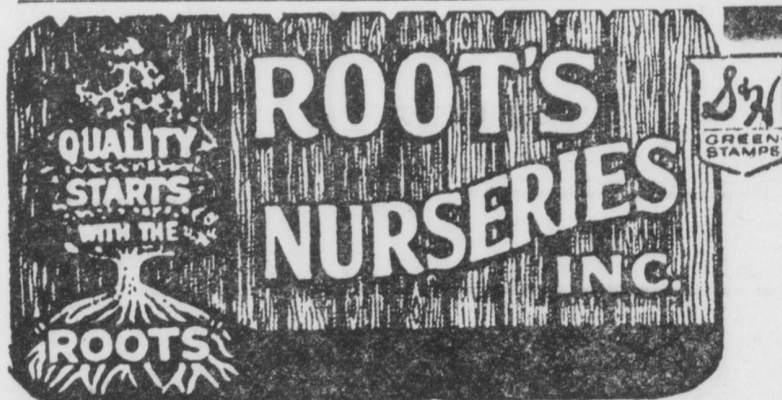

To insure that proper health and grooming habits are followed, each child should have his own wash cloth, towel and soap, says the specialist. Personal combs and brushes should also be a part of the child's grooming tools. All the equipment should be kept clean to prevent redeposit of dirt and grime.

Help children take pride in their appearance by establishing good habits in early childhood.

SAFETY FIRST IN OUTDOOR KITCHEN

Safety is a very important part of your outdoor kitchen, says Joe Cardenuto, Extension recreation specialist at Penn State. Always carry a portable fire extinguisher with you. But in an emergency, you can use sand, salt, baking soda or water. Always heed dry-forest and fire-danger warnings. Be sure to confine all fires to the grill or fire rings or in open areas away from brush or the overhanging limbs. And don't wear loose clothes around the cooking fire.
