

Deaths

WILLIAM DAVIS

William Davis, 54, of 236 E. Market St., Marietta, died at the Lebanon Veterans hospital at 11:30 p.m. Friday following an illness of 4 weeks. Born in West Hempfield Twp., he was a son of the late William and Jennie Lawrence De-Hamidiam and was a lifelong resident of the county. Davis was a semi-retired worker of the Grinnell Corp., of Columbia.

Besides his widow, Mary D. Denlinger Davis, at home, he is survived by a son, Mark D. Davis, also at home; a brother, Arthur Davis, of Columbia and two sisters, Mildred and Esther DeHamidiam, both of Lancaster.

Memorial services were held Monday afternoon, Oct. 30, at the Smedley funeral home.

'Voting Booth' To Benefit MS

This weekend, on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 3 and 4, the Mount Joy Jaycees are sponsoring a voting booth for the benefit of the Multiple Sclerosis Society in Lancaster. A voting booth will be located in front of Greer's Jewelry Store on East Main street in Mount Joy.

Anyone can vote for the Presidential candidate of his choice by placing a quarter in the appropriate jar. The votes will be tabulated by counting the money, and the results will be published the following week.

Multiple Sclerosis is a disease that attacks men and women between the ages of 20 and 40. It attacks the central nervous system causing the patient to lose important body functions such as walking, talking, seeing, hearing and eating. Although there is no cure for the disease, medical research is continuing. The money collected by the Jaycees this weekend will go directly to the Lancaster MS Society to aid people in this County who are afflicted by the disease.

To Seek Higher Phone Rates

The United Telephone Company of Pennsylvania has announced it will file for higher local service rates for its Columbia District.

President L. G. Wigbels said final calculations are being made to determine the amount of new revenues required. The revised rate schedule will be filed with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission within the next several weeks.

William Lutz, manager of the company's Eastern Division, which includes the Columbia District, said the new rates are necessary to bring the District's earnings to a satisfactory level.

Lutz added that service improvements completed in 1970 and 1971 totaled almost $3,000,000. Part of the $1,901,000 that will be invested during 1972 is recently completed central office project in Columbia. The $1,000,000 improvement was installed over a two-year period. Almost $4,000,000 has been budgeted for the district over the next two years.
