Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Rheems Fire Co. dining hall. The couple is living in Mount Joy.

RETIRES FROM WYETH LABORATORIES

Maud Rice, 421 Donegal Rd., retired from Wyeth Laboratories' Marietta facility, Dec. 1. She had been with the company, a major producer of pharmaceuticals, since '62 as a member of the finished product inspection department.

A graduate of Pennsylvania Business College, Lancaster, Mrs. Rice was associated with the Armstrong Cork Company before joining Wyeth. She also was employed by James H. Ross Co. and M. T. Garvin Co. in Lancaster.

Mrs. Rice has two daughters and four grandsons.

Watchnight At St. Marks

A unique watchnight service will be held New Year's Eve at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy. Built around the theme: "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever," the evening's program will deal with past, present, and future. There will be a period of personal reflection and of Holy Communion. Communicants may go to the altar at will and remain as long as they wish. The pastor, W. Richard Kehler, will deliver a brief word on the theme: "Christ, the Key to '73." There will be corporate prayer for the New Year and the singing of "We Are One in the Spirit" as the New Year dawns.

Everyone in the community is invited.

Children's Party Set By Legion

The Mount Joy Legion again will hold its annual Children's Christmas party at the W. I. Beahm Jr. high school building on Saturday, Dec. 23, at 10 a.m.

Chairman Lee Ellis has promised some of the finest children's arts that show business can offer.

And, it is also rumored that Santa will be making a personal appearance to hand out gifts to the children.

No children allowed over the age of 100!!

Louisiana calls its political subdivisions "parishes" rather than "counties."

SCHOOL NOTES

A TRIP TO HAWAII

Miss Elizabeth Patterson, student teacher, Mrs. Vera Albert, the teacher of the fourth grand in Grandview Elementary, and her class are studying around the world.

The first place they went to was Hawaii. They talked about it and showed films about it.

They learned about the main industries of Hawaii and how they are planted. They are learning about volcanos in Hawaii and what makes them erupt. They also learned about the state flower and state flag. Right now they are learning about Pearl Harbor, when, where, and why. They have a display table with pictures and postcards from Hawaii on it, which Kim Gainer and Penny Sumpman brought in.

Now they are planning a Luau which is a Hawaiian feast. They are having Poi which is a pasty stuff that is made from the taro root, nuts, punch, fruits that the Hawaiians eat and cakes.

A group of girls are planning a hula dance. They are Laurie Smith, Cindy Lowe, Mindy Lambert, Kim Gainer, Becky Hogan, Dawn Wolgemuth. They made their own grass skirts from newspaper and are going to wear bright colored blouses and shorts.

They are having a lot of fun as you can see and can't wait to go to the next place, which is Switzerland.

The sixth grade reading class of Mr. Smith, Grandview Elementary will present a play to the fifth and sixth grade students, Thursday, December 21 at 2 p.m. in the cafeteria. The title is "Father Hits the Jackpot" and the characters are played by Merle Kreider, Barbara Peifer, Jeanne Hopwood, Christine Spickler, Alisa Rider Arlen Mummau, Sally Shatz, Randy Hubbard, Bruce Wagner, Vincent Mummau and Daryl Shank.

GIVE FRUIT BASKETS

Girl Scout Troop 32 spread the Christmas spirit when they delivered fruit baskets they had made to the Schock Presbyterian Home last week. For Christmas gifts for their parents they made plaques which they decouped during their meetings held at the Mt. Joy Fire Hall. On Monday evening, Dec. 18, the group of 30 girls enjoyed Christmas caroling and attended a party where they exchanged gifts. Leaders for the troop are: Mrs. Kenneth Good, Mrs. Merle Wilkinson and Mrs. Thomas Kopf.
