Christmas At Glossbrenner

Two Christmas Eve Candlelight Services will be held at Glossbrenner United Methodist Church.

The 7:30 p.m. Family Service will feature the Junior Choir singing "Cradle in a Manger" by Lovelace. At the 11 p.m. service, the Senior Choir will sing "Under the Stars" by Brown. Miss Sandra Heisey will sing "O Holy Night" accompanied by Misses Donna Flick and Anne Nicholas, flutists. Pastor Clair L. Wagner, Jr. will preach on the theme "Christmas. A Civilization Yet to Be" at both services. The traditional lighting of individual candles will conclude the services.

A special choral program will open the Dec. 24 morning worship service at 9:30 o'clock. The Junior and Senior Choirs will sing two combined anthems: "Glory to God" by Young and "The Gift of Love" by Posegate. The Senior choir will sing "We Thank Thee, O God" by Young. Bruce Wagner will accompany two of the numbers on the trumpet. Miss Sandra Heisey will sing "Up, O Shepherds" by Schroeder accompanied by Misses Donna Flick and Anne Nicholas, flutists. The pastor will conclude an Advent series of sermons entitled "The Song of Simon."

The public is invited.

Christmas At St. Marks

In a variety of worship settings, at different hours, members and friends of St. Mark's United Methodist church will celebrate the birth of the Lord Jesus Christ.

On Sunday, Dec. 24, there will be three worship opportunities—all unique, featuring fine music, Gospel preaching, and congregational participation. The choirs of the church, Celestial and Chancel, will have a large part in the 10:15 a.m. Service.

There will be two celebrations on Christmas Eve. The first, a traditional family service—will include readings from the word, carol-singing, and a candlelighting service. It is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. It will be preceded by a 15-minute organ recital by Saint Mark's organist, Gerald Miller. Worshipers are advised to come early.

The 11 p.m. celebration includes special music by the youth of the church as well as youth participation in the Liturgy. Mr. Miller will repeat his recital at the later hour, beginning at 10:45 p.m. The Chancel Choir will be featured at 7:30 on Christmas Eve. Mrs. Carole Musser will be soloist. Miss Kim Lauver will sing at 11 p.m.

Christmas At St. Lukes

The Christmas season will begin at St. Luke's Episcopal church, S. Market S. and Columbia avenue, with a Family Candlelight Service on Christmas Eve at 7:30 p.m.

This early service for families to worship together is becoming a traditional service in the Mount Joy area among people of all denominations. The congregation joins in singing carols and the Junior Choir under the direction of Mrs. Donald Whitesel sings several anthems. Everyone joins in the candle lighting and then as each child leaves the church he is given a piece of the Christ-Child's birthday cake.

At 11:30 p.m. also on Christmas Eve, there will be a Festive Choral Eucharist and meditation. The Rev. Donald M. Whitesel, rector, will celebrate the Eucharist and preach the sermon. He will be assisted by the Senior Choir under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Warren and Dr. David E. Schlosser, parish organist. Again the congregation will participate fully in the singing of carols and in other portions of the service.

On Christmas Day, at 9 a. m., there will be a low celebration of the Holy Communion.

St. Luke's church will be beautifully decorated with additional candles, poinsettias & greens. The decorations are given as memorials and thank-offerings by the parishioners and friends of the congregation.

The windows each will have candles and poinsettias plus a different theme of Christmas in each window. A beautiful creche, made and given by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Libhart, will be blessed at the candle service and the Christ-Child placed in the crib. Several young people will make Luminarias, or Spanish lanterns to light the approaches to the church for the Christmas services. The idea of this four-hundred-year-old custom is to light the way to the Christ-Child.

An invitation is extended to the people of the area to worship at any of the services in St. Luke's church.

Chafing Dish Canapes

Canapes conveniently served in a chafing dish require little or no attention during any party. The water in the lower section of the dish keeps the food warm and prevents it from sticking to the bottom of the pan. Use convenient canned meat spreads in preparation of these zesty canapes and arrange trays of toast squares and unsalted crackers around the chafing dishes for guests to serve themselves these delectable treats.

Chafing Dish Chicken Canapes

3 tablespoons butter	1 cup sour cream
4 cups chopped, fresh mushrooms	1 4/4 ounce can chicken spread
1/2 teaspoon salt	3 tablespoons chopped scallions
1 tablespoon lemon juice	1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
3 tablespoons flour

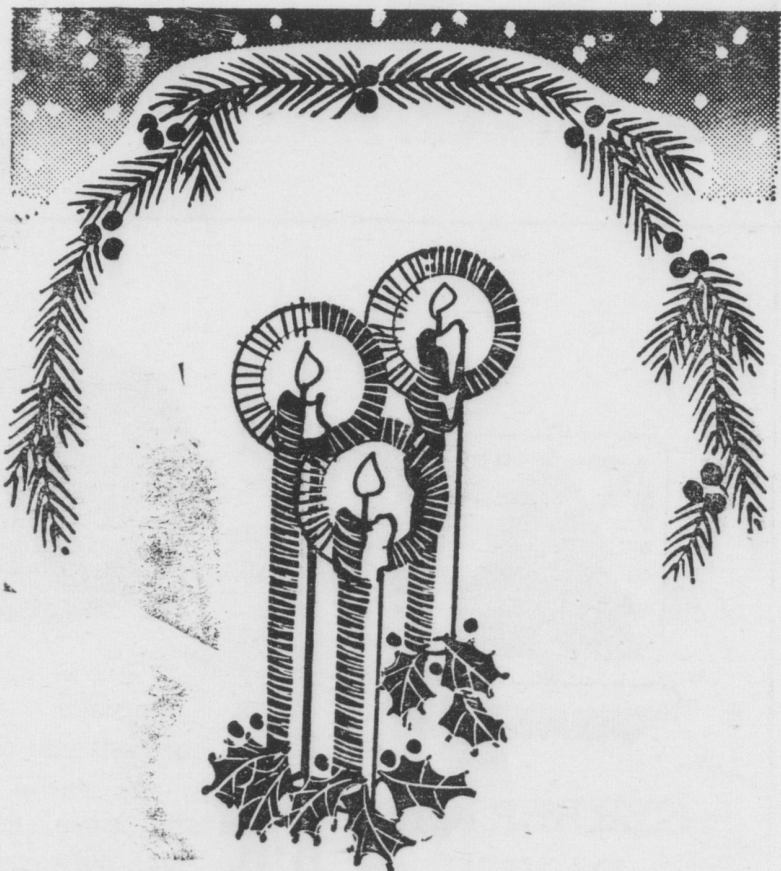

Melt butter in top of double boiler, add mushrooms and cook 3 minutes. Add salt and lemon juice; cover pan and cook for another 3 minutes. Sprinkle flour over mushrooms; stir until mixture thickens. Add sour cream, chicken spread, scallions and Worcestershire sauce. Stir continuously; cook until mixture is bubbly. Turn into top of chafing dish. Let guests help themselves. Serve with small pieces of toast. Makes about 3 cups.

Devilish Ham And Cheese

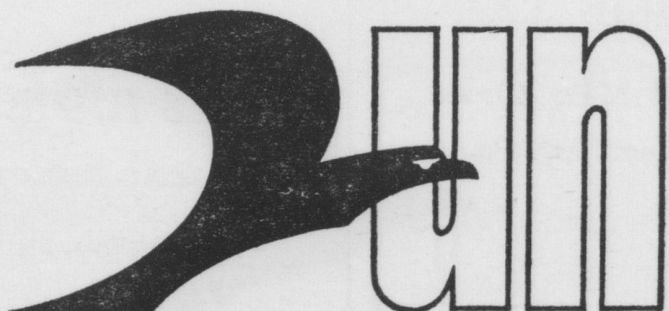

1/2 pound processed American cheese, grated	2 4/4 ounce cans deviled ham
	1/4 cup bourbon or milk

Melt cheese over low heat, stir in deviled ham and bourbon or milk. Serve hot with assorted "dippers" and crackers—preferably unsalted. Makes about 2 cups.
