DEOTION

The famous mountaineer George Lee Malloy was asked why men want to climb a mountain. He gave the much quoted reply. "Because it is there." This answer points out the significant fact that beyond the basic needs of life we all have goals, ideals, and concepts that need to be fulfilled. Fulfillment of these higher needs is just as important as food, shelter, or survival. Decide what goals and ideals you want to see accomplished in your own life and give them your determination and devotion. Remember that you have a need to reach them "because they are there."

Linen and cottons dipped in a light starch solution are less apt to soil, and stains wash out more readily.

BEFORE STARTING A SNOWMOBILE AT ANY TIME, THE EXPERTS AT MERCURY SNOWMOBILES SUGGEST YOU GET IN THE HABIT OF MAKING A SIMPLE PRE-RIDE INSPECTION. FIRST, CHECK THE THROTTLE AND BRAKE LEVERS TO MAKE SURE THEY OPERATE FREELY.

CHECK TO SEE THAT YOU HAVE SUFFICIENT FUEL FOR THE TRIP YOU PLAN. CHECK THE GAUGE OR USE A "DIP STICK" TO MEASURE THE AMOUNT. AT NIGHT NEVER CHECK THE LEVEL USING A LIGHTED MATCH.

Given Honor At Milton Hershey

Robert W. Longenecker, son of Mr. Lineaus W. Longenecker, R.R. 4, Manheim, recently was elected to the Headmaster's Society at Milton Hershey School in Hershey.

Membership in the society is honorary and is based upon a recommendation of the student home life staff and the houseparents of each boy's student home. The selection signifies administrative recognition of exemplary citizenship at the privately-endowed school for boys.

Robert, 17, is a senior taking the college preparatory liberal arts curriculum. He is president of his student home council, and a member of the Spartan Chapter of the National Honor Society, the student senate, and the touring varsity Glee Club. He is also one of the School's representatives to the Capital Area Youth Forum.

Twenty-three students were inducted into the select group at a special convocation on December 15, 1972.

MATURITY

Have you ever wondered why so many men and women reach their middle years and then start asking such questions as, "What's it all about? What am I living for?" It may well be that this is a perfectly natural process. As we mature through our life experiences, we should pause every so often for a self-reappraisal. If we are lost in a forest a good idea is to climb to a high place and view the surroundings. Then we know which direction to take to avoid getting lost.
