Chess Team Back on Top

W. I. Beahm's chess team defeated Pequea Valley last Thursday by a convincing 6-2 score and landed back in first place in its league with a record of 6 wins and 2 losses.

Pequea now has 5 wins, 1 draw and 2 losses.

In the Pequea match, Scott Hershey of Beahm and Lew Bryson had a 53-move draw. Hershey had some strong attacks, but all the exchanges were even. Barb Landis, on Board two for Donegal, defeated Dean Glick in 33 moves. Glick resigned when it was obvious his position was hopeless due to the combined attack of Landis's rooks, queen, and knight. Greg Bryant lost to Pequea's Dippner in a close 56-move game. Wayne Erb of Beahm had a 53-move draw with Rusty Weimer. Lance Wilson of Donegal beat Bruce Maitland in 55 moves after Maitland made excellent moves and fought it out to the end with only his king and a pawn against Wilson's rook, bishop and queen. Mary Grace Bubel and Claudia Brandt each defeated their opponents Dean Kauffman & Larry Stoltzius in 21 moves. Mark Davis defeated Dave Young in only 20 moves.

Beahm's chances for the County title and trophy depend on the outcome of the two remaining matches. Tomorrow Beahm will play Reynold in a 9 board home match. The last time the teams met it was Beahm 8 to 1. In the final match, Beahm travels to Country Day. Beahm defeated them 4 to 2 in the first round of competition.

ROTARY

Edward Hagen of Millersville, safety instructor of the Associated Builders and Contractors, Inc., was the speaker Tuesday noon, Jan. 16, at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Mount Joy Rotary club, held at Hostetters.

Talking about the relatively new "Occupational Safety and Health Act" known as OSHA, he stressed the vital function of safety and outlined some of the features of the governing legislation.

He charged that most people do not take safety seriously and pointed to the fact that human beings are the most important natural resource of our nation.

The speaker was introduced by Lester P. Eshelman.

A moment of silence was observed in memory of the late W. Harold Endslow, a member of the club who had a 29-year perfect attendance record.

Charles Eby was a guest of the club.
