Women to Hold Call to Prayer

United Methodist Women of Chiques United Methodist church of Mount Joy will hold one of their most important annual observances this week — The Call to Prayer and Self-Denial. More than 1.5 million women in 34,000 local units in all 50 states will join in the observance.

The Call to Prayer and Self-Denial for women will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 15 at the church.

Missionaries and nationals from around the world have provided information for the Call to Prayer and Self-Denial observance. The Quiet Day, "Our Life Together: A Pilgrimage," was written by Miss Peggy Halsey, formerly a US-2 short-term missionary to retarded children in the United States who is now Secretary for Financial Promotion for United Methodist Women.

United Methodist Women is the successor body to two former denominational women's groups—the Women's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild, and is related to the Women's Division of the United Methodist Board of Global Ministries. Last year the Call to Prayer and Self-Denial offerings of United Methodist Women totaled $651,312.96.
