endeavor and say "Thank you, Mr. Hart, for a job well done!"

Hart has been teacher, coach and administrator during his career as a schoolman, taking a solid and constructive stance toward education for the boys and girls of the community.

Interestingly, at least two of the members of the Board of Education are people who were Hart's former students.

His assignment over the years for the local schools include:

"Of This and That"

"plain people," as they learned when they asked the elevator girl at Hager's to take them there.

Roots' Market was a fascinating place to the three. They came home loaded down with a huge watermelon, a cantalope, and peaches and nectarines!

They visited the Wax Museum, the Dutch Family Festival, the country store at Bird-in-Hand, and other places in the tourist area east of Lancaster, and brought home appropriate souvenirs, "treasures."

They saw three colleges - Millersville, F.&M and Elizabethtown, and were moved to wish they might be students at Elizabethtown, as they are all members of the Bremen Church of the Brethren!

They -- picknicked" at Indiantown Gap, at the Masonic Homes in Elizabethtown, at "The Cove" and at Sico Park; they went swimming in the pond on the farm of Rev. and Mrs. William Longenecker, visited historic Trinity Lutheran Church in Lancaster and the quaint and historic Donegal Presbyterian church and witness Tree. And of course they visited Park City!

One of the things they enjoyed the most was a trip to Hershey. They loved its beautiful streets, trees and buildings, the lovely farm homes for orphan boys, the big school on the side of the mountain, Hotel Hershey, Founders' Hall, Chocolate World, etc. etc.

They declined to visit the Amusement Park, saying, "We have a big amusement park not far from Bremen, and besides, we just had our county fair and carnival last week!"

And so it went! Each experience was fresh and new to them - and it reminded us of our first visit to Lancaster County just 17 years ago this summer!

The girls' visit recalled our own enthusiasm for this area, and the reasons we decided to call it "home!"
