Beahm Jr. High History Teacher To Take Lead In Play, 'Picnic'

William Earhart, Donegal junior high school history teacher and coach, will have the leading role in the Pulitzer prize-winning comedy-drama, "Picnic," by William Inge, to be given Friday, Oct. 12 through Saturday, Oct. 20 at the Fulton Opera House in Lancaster.

The play, to be produced by the Actors' Company of Pennsylvania, will be directed by Emily Patrick Hoffman.

Earhart, whose hobby for several years has been sports announcing, radio work and allied fields of interest, is appearing for the first time in a major dramatic production. He was led to try out for the "Picnic" role by an unflagging interest in the play since it appeared in the 1950's, starring Kim Novak.

Featured in the play will be authentic fashions of the "Fabulous Fifties," resurrected by members of the cast from assorted attics, well-chosen basements, thrift shops and closets.

"Picnic" will be given at 7:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday nights and at 8:30 on Fridays and Saturdays. There will be no shows on Sundays.

Girl Scouts Camp At Heisey Ranch, Weather Saturday Night Thunderstorm

On September 22-23, Junior Girl Scout Troop No. 32 of Mount Joy held a week-end camping trip. They stayed at the private campsite owned by Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Heisey of Rheems. For many of the girls this was their first Girl Scout camping experience.

The girls enjoyed a nature hike conducted by Mrs. Heisey, singing around the campfire, and cooking their own meals. All of the girls put up and took down their tents. But the test came when there was a thunderstorm that evening. All of the tents stayed up.

The girls and adults attending were:

Julie Bainhart, Beth Gainer, Sherre Gallagher, Marcie Hohn, Theresa Good, Tracy Gotwalt, Colleen Jones, Lisa Lucabaugh, Maxine Maxwell, Tanya Merchant, Rhonda McKain, Diane Pardoe, Trudy Rafferty, Jonna Rose, Angel Secrist, Rhonda Shank and Julie Whitesel. Mrs. Shirley Good, mother of one of the girls, and Miss Sue Weaver, a Senior Girl Scout, also accompanied the group. Leaders of the troop are Mrs. Nancy Kopf and Miss Ella Gainer.

'Of This and That'

by the editor's wife

Are the wild geese confused? Or is it the flowering crabs that are "mixed up?"

Our sleuth on Bruce Avenue, who reports on the seasons from time to time, isn't sure. More than a week ago, he looked out over blossoms on a flowering crab and saw wild ducks flying--SOUTH!

In other words, the crabs are acting as if it's spring, and the geese as if winter is approaching!

We'll believe the geese. However, we did hear of another flowering crab tree in bloom on Birchland Avenue, so the issue isn't as clear-cut as it might be!

Curvin H. Martin, Marietta Street, Mount Joy's retired farmer and currently a member of the Lancaster County Board of Viewers, passed the 83rd milestone in his life on Sept. 12. SET DATE FOR HEARING

Closing Of Ice Alley Recommended

A hearing, to take evidence bearing upon the possibility of closing a portion of Ice alley, has been set for Monday evening, Nov. 5, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The time and date were established Monday night, Oct. 8, as Mount Joy Borough Council held its October meeting and heard a Planning Commission report that the thoroughfare be closed.

In discussion of its position, the planning body pointed out that the proposal is within the guide lines of the borough's comprehensive plan, following goals for keeping the area industrial in nature.

The five-man commission voted three for approval, one member abstaining and a fifth member absent.

However, prior to the hearing, the borough is to have a professional appraisal made of the value of the one tenth of an acre of land, which is involved.

The tract, extending west from North Market street to approximately Alley A, is a 14-foot strip of land between two buildings now owned by Lancaster Leaf Tobacco company.

The tobacco company proposes to relocate utilities now situated in the alley and then to convert the area into its plant, now being rebuilt following a disastrous fire during the early part of the 1973 summer.

Legal publications and an on-site notice are to be given the general public prior to the hearing date.

Donegal Swallows Homecoming Defeat From Solanco, 22-6

After the Donegal - Elizabethtown game, Indian Coach Gayne Deshler said, "We've played the easy ones, now!"

And, as things are working out, he has been a good football prophet!

Saturday, for a Homecoming crowd at D.H.S., the Indians took their third straight defeat of the season, bowing to the Cocalico Eagles, 22-6.

The season now stands two and three with no wins in the Lancaster - Lebanon league.

Fumbleitis was blamed for a great part of the Saturday afternoon affair as the Eagles swooped down on four Donegal boo-boos.

The other factor which caused Donegal embarrassment was a hard-charging fullback named Harold Strunk, who ripped and snorted for more than 150 yards against Donegal's usually tight defenses.

The Eagles went for 177 yards rushing. The Indians, however, were in better form in the air, hitting nine of 13 attempts for 75 yards. Cocalico managed only 3 of 7 for 54.

The Indians scored their only TD in the second period as Randy Richards went over the goal from the 10. PAT attempt from scrimmage was not good.

At the half, Donegal trailed in a 14-6 score but in the final period, the visitors came through with their third score, Strunk clipping off 36 yards to pay territory. He then passed for the extra two points.

This week the Indians go to Annville to meet the Annville - Cleona Dutchmen, who have three league wins--over Garden Spot, 28-6; Solanco, 7-6 and Penn Manor, 14-0. One LLL defeat was claimed, 34-0, by big, bad Manheim Central. A pre-league battle went to Palmyra, 13-6.

Watch for Randy Leonard!

This week, league standings put Manheim Central on top with four wins and no losses, followed by Elco's 3-0. Annville-Cleona stands 3-1 while the Indians check out next to the bottom with 0-3, above Garden Spot's 0-4.
