

Start International Mail For Christmas Delivery

It is time for international Christmas mail to be on its way, Postmaster Gerald Hostetter said this week.

Mail for Africa, the Near East and Far East should be posted by Nov. 29. (Parcels by Nov. 24).

Parcels for Europe, Central America and South America should be on their way by Nov. 27 and even air mail by Dec. 2.

Packages addressed to Canada and Mexico need to be started on their way by Nov. 29 and airmail by Dec. 4.

Deadline for Christmas cards traveling by surface mail is Nov. 23.

The post office has advanced mailing deadlines because of the energy shortage, giving more opportunity to handle and deliver under what may be serious handicaps.

Even domestic mail must be started earlier than usual, the post office advises. Surface mail to Alaska and Hawaii should be started by Nov. 23, followed by surface letters and cards on Dec. 8.

The postal service recommends that surface mail to distant states be started early in December. Parcels should be mailed by Dec. 3 and letters by Dec. 8.
