

Joycee-ettes Hold November Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Mount Joy Joycee-ettes was held at Jaycee headquarters on November 18. President LaVon Harnish was in charge.

Mrs. Pat Moran reported on the various activities of the Brownie Troops which the Joycee-ettes help support. Mrs. Venda Aument reported the success of the November hoagie sale. Mrs. Cheryl Hallgren and Mrs. Pat Moran were named chairmen of the next hoagie sale, to be held in January. The current stationery order was distributed by Mrs. Sandy Gingrich. Mrs. Gail Hawthorne presented the revised constitution and by-laws. Action is to be taken on them at the December meeting after the membership has had a chance to study the proposals.

Mrs. Aument reported that the Jaycees will be taking the children of the Messiah home on a Christmas shopping tour on December 15. The children will take their purchases to Jaycees headquarters, where the Joycee-ettes will help wrap the Christmas gifts. Mrs. Diana Blace will chair a "Mrs. Santa" project to aid Santa in the Local stores.

Mrs. Debbie Newcomer was named chairman of the Sweetheart photo contest, to be held the end of January. Mrs. Cheryl Hallgren selected a committee to set up a Mount Joy Club women's Tea in the Spring.

Membership in Pennsylvania Jaycettes organization was discussed and tabled until more information can be obtained.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Cheryl Hallgren. This special Christmas meeting will include mothers of the Joycee-ettes and other special friends.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served while the members worked on Mod podge pictures and candy wreaths for the organization's bazaar.
