National Central Posts 18 PC Gain

A 17 percent increase in net income during 1973 was posted by National Central Financial Corporation, parent company of National Central Bank, according to John C. Tuten, corporation chairman.

Net income grew from $6,581,327 in 1972 to $7,711,983 last year, a $.33 increase in earnings per common share from $2.07 per share in 1972 to $2.40 per share in 1973.

On December 31, 1973, National Central Financial Corporation had deposits of $762,907,428, up 17.6 percent over 1972 year end deposits of $648,499,610. Loans at the end of 1973 were $531,912,897, up 19 percent over loans of $446,845,034 at the end of the previous year and, during 1973, total assets climbed 18.1 percent to $870,000,165.

In November of last year, National Central's board of directors voted an 8 percent increase in the corporation's quarterly dividend from $.25 to $.27 per share. This dividend will be paid January 10, 1974, to stockholders of record December 10, 1973.
