Donegal And Solanco Score 174 Points But Tribe Bows

In a free-scoring game which ran about as many points as high school basketballers ever do, Donegal was downed, 93-81, Tuesday night, Feb. 5, at Solanco. The 174-point total does not even tell the story. With only minutes remaining in the game, the Indians led by seven points.

But, like all score-and-run ball games, the lead melted quickly in the heat of the bombardment.

The Mules led, 21 - 14, at the quarter and 37-35, at the half.

If that was high scoring, the second half total was 58-44. Many college and pro teams fail to set that kind of scoring tempo.

It was Jack Dettinger who paced the Donegals, hitting

Scott E. Albert, 130 New Haven Street, son of Mrs. Vera Cox, and Craig Alan Gainer, 140 Park Avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gainer.

23 big ones, a personal record for the season. It was only the second time he has topped 20. The other was in the first game of the season when he scored 22.

Dave Schlosser tallied 14, which tied two other highs for him. John Fellenbaum had 12.

Eleven men were used by the Indian coach, Emil Swift.

The Manheim Central-Donegal basketball game, originally scheduled for Friday night, Feb. 8, has been postponed and will be played Tuesday, Feb. 19.

Postponement was made because of snow and bad weather.
