Mr. and Mrs. Warren Foley and daughter, Emmy Lou, recently spent four days in New Orleans, Louisiana, combining business with pleasure. They stayed at the Fairmont Roosevelt Hotel, where they were thrilled with a ringside seat performance of Miss Pearl Bailey.

They enjoyed ideal temperatures of 75 to 79 degrees while they toured the city. The highlights included the French Quarters, Bourbon Street and one of the longest bridges in the world with a span of 28 miles over Lake Ponchartrain.

Thirteen Mount Joy Boy Scouts from Troop 39 donned their cold weather gear to brave 9-degree temperatures and 4 inches of snow Friday night, Feb. 8, to earn their Polar Bear awards for winter camping. Under the direction of Bill Dommel, assistant Scoutmaster, and Dale Boyer, Senior patrol leader, they spent the night at Camp Mack Boy Scout Reservation.

Camp was set up at 7:30 p.m. Friday night, and all the gear stowed and cleaned up Saturday morning in time for the 9 a.m. registration for the Frozen Trail exercises. The Scouts cooked their own meals over camp fires, and complained of frozen water in their canteens.

The following boys participated: Mitch Mummau, Dave Chapin, Dave Eichler, Bill Dammel, Fred Straub, Tim Keller, Benji Keller, Duane Gray, Denny Weller, Chris Merchant, Kenny Henny and Lynn Witmer.

At the registration area Saturday morning, five more Scouts joined the troop to bring it to three-patrol strength. They were: Kelly Leshner, Tom Bair, Scott Eshleman, Dean and Duane Chapin.

The boys entered into competition with patrols from the Western District of Lancaster-Lebanon County Council for top honors in cooking skills, camping skills, survival and first aid problems. Troop 39 did not capture the trophy for first place, but, out of a possible 80 points, the Flying Eagle patrol received 70, the Scorpion patrol totaled 66 points and the Buffalo patrol, 65. First place was awarded to the Viking patrol from Rohrerstown with 79 points. All the troops represented were given a participation award.

John D. Miller, North High Street, currently is a patient at the Hershey Medical Center. He underwent surgery last week, was released from intensive care on Saturday, Feb. 9 and is reported doing exceptionally well. He is in Room 669.

Ambitious 5-Year Park Plan Outlined By Boro Council

An ambitious five-year improvement program at the Mount Joy Borough park was outlined Monday night, Feb. 11, at the monthly meeting of Borough Council.

Using anticipated funds from a "500 Project" source at state level, the proposed plan would get under way this year and continued through 1978.

As outlined by Engineer Daniel Gohn, the 1974 season would include improvement of the tennis courts, new fencing; correction of drainage problems by installation of a tile field; build basketball courts; and perhaps preliminary grading for a new parking lot.

MAIN STREET,

enough of it these days to save any.

Or, to put it another way, we'd say that daylight time right now is a little like gasoline. There's not enough of it!

Here's another thing we can't understand. Why does anyone use the word "rationing" in connection with the plan used in some states of selling gasoline on certain days to persons who have odd or even license plate numbers?

There is nothing of rationing in that kind of plan. The only thing such a plan can do is to shorten lines of motorists waiting to get to the pumps.

To call that rationing shows a complete lack of knowledge about the subject. The "numbers game" is controlled distribution. If anyone thinks that is rationing, he's going to get a shock when and if it comes.

Ask anyone who experienced rationing during World War II — gasoline, coffee, tires, shoes, etc. Rationing means being allowed to buy a predetermined share, portion or allowance.

Other proposals to follow in order:

1975 — Install new parking lot, install sidewalk along the Market street side of the park, and revamp the parking lot entry.

1976 — Install curbs and sidewalks along the Manheim street side of the park, and 1977 — Install curbs and sidewalks along the Barbara street side of the park.

Happiness is a long distance call on Valentine's Day

A long distance call to a loved one on Valentine's Day is an act of true thoughtfulness. It's worth its weight in love.
