Indian Team Bows But Trips Barons Who Seek To Change Name Of Game

Sometimes the name of the game is not victory!

Tuesday night, Feb. 19, as Donegal played its final basketball game of the season, Manheim Central did change the name and put every effort into scoring 100 points for the evening.

So, if that was truly the objective of the contest, Donegal was the winner. For, the final score was 99-63.

With all but three minutes of the game gone and Central holding 96 points, the Barons put everything available into the game, seeking the round century point.

But, Donegal did not cooperate and began putting on the brakes in the up-and-down-the-hardwood-race. The Barons suddenly felt frustration and began bumbling and missing and as the game ended were the losers by one oint of their chief goal.

Victory, did go to the visiting Barons, who had the games well in hand from the beginning, scoring 24-28-23-24 in a consistant pattern against the Indians' 14-15-23-12 in their four periods.

Nate Bridgette having hsi best night since Donegal was on its three-game victory string back in January, counted 19 points to lead the Tribe. Dave Schlosser and Jack Dettinger had 13 each.

Central needed the win - not the 100 points - to stay in a tie for second place in Section II of the L-L league with Solanco, one game ahead of Garden Spot.

Donegal finished the year 4-15 for the loop and 4-18 for the season.

As the curtain came down on the '73-'74 campaign, Bridgette captured high scoring honors, hitting a big total of 244. He was followed by Dave Schlosser as the only other Indian to top 200, hitting 230. Kevin Miller totaled 198 and Jack Dettinger, 183.

The 99-64 score Tuesday in the finale, calls attention to the fact that five Donegal opponents ran more than 90 points, four of them in the second round of play. The fifth was in a pre-season game with Red Lion.

In one of the high-scoring contests, Donegal had 81 points and in two more the Tribe topped 60, underscoring the potential offensive thrust the Indians had and are expected to have in the 1974-'75 season when the heart and core of the Indian team returns for another try for the honors.

Girl Scout Leader Talks At Joycee-ette's Meeting

The Mount Joy Joycee-ettes, who help sponsor the three local Brownie troops, had as their guest speaker at their February meeting Cadet Leader Mrs. Clarence Trego.

Mrs. Trego is the leader of Troop 183 in Lancaster. She shared with the Joycee-ettes her love of and enthusiasm for Scouting as she explained the different levels and goals of Scouting. She showed how, through badge work, service projects and fun activities, Scouting tries to develop the potential of each girl.

Following Mrs. Trego's presentation, Mrs. John Harnish, president, was in charge of the business meeting. Mrs. Michael Aument announced that the annual Easter party for the children of the Messiah Home will be held at the Home this year on March 30.

Mrs. Michael Newcomer announced the success of the Sweetheart Baby Contest, and thanked her committee and the general public for their participation and support of the project which aids the Donegal Dental Clinic. Mrs. Patrick Moran reported that all plans for the Dessert-Fashion Show Card party, scheduled for March 11, have been finalized.

Nominations were opened, and will remain open until the March meeting when new officers will be elected. The annual Installation Banquet will be held at Mr. Lacy's in Marietta on March 23.

Mrs. Carl Hallgren was named chairman of the 1974 Bazaar, and also for the Clubwomen's President's Tea. More details will be available at the March meeting concerning both projects. Mrs. Jerry Nolt was named co-ordinator for Joycee-ette activities for Memorial Day.

Following some discussion, the membership decided to become affiliated with the State Jaycette organization. Delegates will be sent to the State Board meeting in March.
