

Two Elementary Wrestlers Win Crowns At Manheim

On Tuesday, March 5, and Thursday, March 7, the Donegal elementary wrestling program sent 18 boys to the Manheim Wrestling Tournament. Two boys were crowned champion of their weight class and one took a 2nd place. The Donegal boys competed with approximately 240 boys from 10 Lancaster county schools and three area Boy's Clubs.

Donegal finished the preliminary and quarter-final rounds on Tuesday night with eight boys eligible for the semi-finals on Thursday. In the semi-finals, Joe Gilmartin, Phil Landis and John Anspach defeated their opponents to advance to the final round.

The finals matched Joe Gilmartin against Gary Schneup from the Lititz Boy's Club. These two boys were finalists last year with the same result. Gary defeated Joe by a 4-0 decision.

Phil Landis went against Rick Nauman of E-Town and won a 4-0 decision to take the championships. John Anspach, in the heavyweight division drew another E-Town opponent, William Harnly. John won a 7-1 decision. All three boys received medals.

The Elementary Wrestling Program will continue to function every Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m. in the high school gym, under the supervision of the high school wrestling staff.

These boys compete each week in a midjet program comprised of six teams which battle for the team championship.

These young wrestlers will enter the A.A.U. Tournament, to be held at Manheim Twp. high school on March 23. Any person in the community is welcome to go to the high school on Saturdays to watch the program in action.
