Building and Loan Elects Directors and Officers

Directors and officers of the Mount Joy Building and Loan association were re-elected Wednesday night, April 10, at the annual meeting, held in the lobby of the National Central bank, Main and Market streets.

Stockholders elected John M. Booth, Christ Walters and Gerald Sheetz directors to serve three year terms.

Officers elected by the directors, following the stockholders meeting, included: Booth, president; George Keener, vice-president; Robert Kline, secretary; treasurer, Walters; assistant secretary, Betty Mitzkavich; auditors, Pollick, Groff and White; solicitor, Carl Hallgren, and stenographer, Jean Pricio. Other directors of the association not subject to election this year include: Kline, Keener, Elmer Z. Ginder, John Weidman, Richard A Rainbolt and Drew Mummaw.

The association holds mortgages amounting to $923,623, up $80,725 from last year, the stockholders were informed.

BIRTHS

Ronald and Gail (Shelly) Hawthorne, 365 Donegal Springs Road, a son, Tuesday, April 9, at General hospital.

John and Faye (Brosey) Heisey, Mount Joy R2, a son, Monday, April 8, at St. Joseph hospital.

Charles and Marilyn (Hollinger) Keener, Mount Joy R2, a daughter, Sunday, April 7, at General hospital.

Robert E. and Eileen (Hess) Sents, Mount Joy R2, a daughter, Thursday, April 11, at General Hospital.

School and Home Association Sets Officer Election

The Seiler School and Home association will hold its annual election of officers on Tuesday, April 23, in the all-purpose room at Seiler Elementary.

Parents may visit the class rooms, beginning at 6:45 p.m. until 7:15 p.m. During this time the 6th grade students of Miss Nancy Ettaro's and Jim Sarbaugh's rooms will be displaying various science projects they have completed recently.

A special program is planned following the meeting. A performance by the elementary band, composed of 4th, 5th and 6th grade students from both Seiler and Grandview schools, will play several selections. The band is under the direction of Morell Shield, elementary instrumental teacher.

Also included in the program will be a presentation of folk dancing by the 6th grade, directed by music teacher, Mrs. Patricia K. Enos.

There will be baby sitting available to pre-school age brothers and sisters of Seiler students.

Lions To Hold Pancake Breakfast

Saturday, April 20, the Mount Joy Lions club will hold a Pancake Breakfast at their activities building, located off Main street near the swimming pool.

Serving will begin at 5:30 a.m. and continue until 11 a.m.
