Deaths

MIAL E. LILLEY
Mial E. Lilley, 58, of 335 Main St., Landisville, died of a heart attack early Saturday, May 4, while driving his car in Mount Joy. Lilley's car was found by a borough patrolman wedged against a sign in front of Norman Z. Heisey's auto showroom on East Main street.

A passenger in the car, Robert Miller, 51, of 165 1/2 Broad St., Landisville, suffered a broken nose and multiple cuts. He was taken to St. Joseph Hospital. Dr. Newton D. Kendig, county coroner, pronounced Lilley dead at the scene of an acute heart attack. Lilley's 1965 compact car also hit a parked car in the rear and his was demolished. A native of Towanda, Lilley had lived in Landisville for the past ten years. He was the son of the late J. Roy and Helen Bradley Lilley.

ROBERT P. MCGINLEY, president of Sico Co., has been named to a national oil advisory group by John C. Sawhill, U.S. energy chief.

He had served in the Air Force during World War II and was a disabled veteran. He was a member of Christ Episcopal Church, Towanda.

McGinley becomes a member of the Wholesale Petroleum Advisory Group and will aid in advising the Federal Energy Office in formulating policy concerning the nation's energy problems.

He is to meet with Sawhill later this week. McGinley has been active as a director and action committee member for the Pennsylvania Petroleum Association which represents 1,200 gasoline and home heating oil distributors in Pennsylvania who are independent from major oil companies.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Helen L. Everts, Landisville, and Jean L., wife of William Ramsay, Lancaster.

WEDDINGS

Services were held Monday at 8:30 p.m. Burial was made in Oak Hill cemetery, Towanda.

GOSS-WAGNER

The marriage of Miss Denise Marie Wagner to John A. Goss took place Friday, May 3, at 8 p.m. at the Trinity Lutheran Church with the Rev. Lester Koder officiating.

with Venice and cluny lace. Miss Teresa Wagner, sister of the bride, Mount Joy, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were: Mrs. Margaret L. Reinhart, sister of the bridegroom, Quarryville; Mrs. Vicki L. Harnish, Millersville, and Miss Leann Ellis, Mount Joy.

REV. ROBT. J. HARMAN
The Rev. Robert J. Harman, 47, former pastor of the Harvey Wagner Memorial Church, Ventnor, N.J., died Monday, April 29, in Stuart, Fla., where he was pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy J. Wagner, 341 Florin Ave., and the late Roy C. Wagner. She was graduated from Donegal high school and is a senior at the Lancaster General Hospital School of Nursing.

Flower girl was Amy Lynn Reinhart, Quarryville. David Linton, Mount Joy, was ringbearer.

A former resident of Ventnor, he was graduated from Atlantic City high school, Temple University and the Reformed Episcopal Seminary, Philadelphia. He also was a teacher in the Ventnor schools.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Goss, Lancaster and was graduated from Lampeter-Strasburg high school and served in the U.S. Marine Corps for four years.

Serving as best man was Bruce Wenger of Lancaster. Ushers were: James Myer, Elizabethtown, and Douglas L. Goss and William R. Goss, brothers of the bridegroom.

Surviving are his wife, Mary; three daughters, and his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Harman of Ventnor.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Lewis C. Diller, the bride wore a floor-length gown of organza trimmed

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church.

The inescapable price of liberty is an ability to preserve it from destruction.
