

Ralph M. Snyder
R. D. 2
Mount Joy, Pa.

THE MOUNT JOY

VOL. 73 NO. 49

BULLETIN

MOUNT JOY, PENNA.

MAY 15, 1974

MOUNT JOY'S ONLY NEWSPAPER

TEN CENTS

Songfest

The combined Senior choirs of the East Fairview and Chiques Churches of the Brethren will present a program of music for praise and prayer Sunday, May 19, 7:30 p.m. at the Chiques Church, located on the Elizabethtown and Sunnyside roads.

The choir of approximately 60 voices will sing hymns and anthems.

The public is invited.

Art Students Plan "Wizard Of Oz" With Hand Puppets

"The Wizard of Oz," as portrayed by hand puppets by eight art students of Mrs. James Phillips, will be given on Saturday, June 1.

The students, ranging in age from 9 to 17, have made all their puppets and done all the scenery.

The show is scheduled for 10 a.m. at the Phillips Studio on Concord alley. In case of rain, the performance will be given in the basement of nearby St. Mark's United church basement.

Auction May 23

Thursday, May 23, Friendship Fire company will stage its first annual auction, beginning at 6 p.m., Ronald L. Alleman has announced.

The company is in need of merchandise — almost anything from attics, basements, garages — for the sale. Items may be taken to the fire house, where the sale will be held, any evening or Saturday.

New Gym Construction At Donegal High Begun

Construction of a new auxiliary gymnasium for Donegal high school has begun!

The site was laid out last week immediately east of the present gymnasium and trenches for footers have been dug.

To be a one-story structure, 50' x 150' feet, it is located apart from the present building but within about six feet of the present wall. It will cover the outside door from the boys' locker room.

Completion of the building — of concrete block and brick — is expected by the end of the summer.

In the meantime, a community-wide financial drive is under way to raise approximately $20,000. Labor and materials also are needed. Letters seeking help

HENRY G. CARPENTER, 5 Delta street, has been given the highest award Rotary International can bestow upon one of its members. Tuesday, May 8, at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Mount Joy club, held at Hostetters, Carpenter was presented a citation making him a Rotary Fellow. The award was presented by Dr. David E. Schlosser, local president.

Princess Pageant Voting Opens At Three Locations

Voting for the Memorial Day Princess Pageant, which the Mount Joy Joyceettes are sponsoring, began May 10 and will continue through and including May 27th.

Each penny contributed will count one vote for the contestant. Money collected will be used to help finance the summer playground have been issued throughout the community and the student body of D.H.S. is being involved. "Shares" of 15 cents and 50 cents are being issued. A 15-cent share buys a brick, 50 cents a block. The shares are expected to raise about $3,000.

The School Board approved committee responsible for coordinating the project — called DIG — includes: Dr. William B. Landis, president of the organization; Dr. Harold H. Fellenbaum, vice-president; Donald W. Drenner, secretary-treasurer; Walter Price, coordinator of work and materials, and John N. Weidman, publicity.

Interested citizens who want to become part of the project may contact any of the committeemen.

May Queen

Victoria Eichler was named May Queen at Donegal high school last week to reign over the Olympic activities held that day.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Eichler, Mount Joy R1.

Patricia Greiner Wins Prose Award At Delaware U.

Patricia Greiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Greiner, Park Avenue, has just been named winner of the Diamond State Branch of the national League of American Pen Women's creative prose award for 1974.

The honor came for Patricia's short story, "Tomorrow and Tomorrow," which appeared in the University of Delaware Grover Magazine for Spring, 1974. Patricia is a junior at the college, majoring in English and drama.

programs at Sieler and Grandview schools.

The following are the stores in which the pictures of the contestants will appear:

IGA - Susan Murphy, Laura Summers, Trudy Lynn Kelley, Kim Gainer, Cindy Lee Heagy, Deborah Hess and Lori Jo Grubb.

Hostetters Hardware - Linda Pennell, Maxine Maxwell, Beth Ann Gainer, Lori Sagerer and Tammy Eberly.

Hy Lo - Joyce Lynn Newcomer, Gina Thompson, Sharon Gehman, Lisa Freed and Julie Barnhart.

'The Abused Child' To Be Subject Of Talk Tuesday

Speaking on the subject of "The Abused Child," Stephen E. Sohonyay, executive director of the Lancaster County Bureau of Children's Services, will talk in Mount Joy Tuesday night, May 21.

His appearance will be sponsored by the Mount Joy Joyceettes and the public is invited.

The meeting will be held in the Borough building, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Following Sohonyay's presentation, there will be an open discussion and a question and answer period.

Boro To Charge Each Dwelling $12 Garbage Collection Fee

OPEN HOUSE

To Honor Betty Groff

Betty Groff, whose fame as an expert with Pennsylvania Dutch food has made her an author, will be honored by the Mount Joy Library on Sunday afternoon, May 26 with an Open House.

To be held from 2 until 4, the Open House will give local people an opportunity to have Mrs. Groff autograph her new book, "Good Earth and Country Cooking," co-authored with Jose Wilson.

Copies of the book will be available and cookies and punch will be served.

1st & 2nd Grade Parents Report In School Survey

Parents of first and second grade pupils in Donegal School District are being asked to report "how well they think the district is performing."

The community survey was mailed last week and responses are anticipated before the end of this week. The effort is being conducted to find out conditions that individuals in the district believe should exist in the schools.

Pupils and staff, also, are to be surveyed this month.

The project is being done by a sub-committee of Donegal's Right to Read Advisory Council. The group

(Continued on Page 8)

Lutheran Church To Honor Noah Klauss Sunday Eve

The senior choir of Trinity Lutheran Church will honor Noah Klauss, composer and arranger, Sunday, May 19, at 7:30 p.m. when "A Night of Music with Noah Klauss" will be held in the church.

Klauss, a member of Trinity Lutheran Church and a resident of Elizabethtown, retired in 1969 from the Elizabethtown Area School District, where he was director of instrumental music. He began his teaching career at Elizabethtown in 1936 and organized the school band in 1945.

The Sunday program will include anthems Klauss had composed for the choir to sing during church services and a number of instrumental compositions he has written.

Recognition also will be given to Mrs. Klauss, the former Sylvia Edris Kreider, who has adapted the text from the Scriptures and has written the words to a number of her husband's compositions.

Klauss' music will be presented by the church choir, under the direction of H. Morrell Shields, by the Mount Joy Community

Chorus, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Schock, and by a string quartet composed of Carolyn Black, viola; Jeanette Barnes, cello, Edna Barnes, violin, and Stanley Dotterer, violin.

Instrumentalists will be, Miss Gloria Louise Longenecker, flute; Shields, clarinet and tenor saxophone; Gordon Brightbill, French horn, and Dotterer, piano.

Miss Beulah Smith, organist, will accompany the church choir and Mrs. Carl Bubacz, pianist, will accompany the chorus.

The public is invited.

Annual Billing Begins June 1

Mount Joy has a new and drastically different ordinance governing collection of garbage and refuse within the borough.

Passed Monday night, May 13, at the monthly meeting of Borough Council, held in the borough building, the ordinance establishes for the first time a levy for the routine removal of garbage and rubbish.

The full text of the new, Mount Joy Borough garbage and trash collection ordinance is published in this issue of the Bulletin, beginning on page five.

Each dwelling unit in the borough — home and apartment — will be charged $12 per year.

First billing will be June 1, covering the period Jan. 1, 1974 to Dec. 31, 1974. Bills go to property owners. Payments may be made at the borough office or at any of the local banks.

The new law was passed eight votes to one, Councilman George Groff casting the single opposing ballot.

Totally, the new ordinance will raise an estimated $20,000 annually, which is about half the entire cost of the service, it was pointed out by the council. The levy, which becomes effective at once, will ease the borough's financial pressure for handling refuse and garbage. Costs have been building up over a long period but to date have been absorbed by the Borough and extended to the public as a free community service. Council faced passing either the garbage fee or raising the tax rate four mills.

Although the new ordinance sets out that only four 20-gallon cans may be handled per household per week, a council spokesman said that the number is expected to be a "flexible" matter.

A family which normally does not reach the maximum should have no fear of being charged extra "the week he cleans out the garage" and has "extra" trash, the spokesman said.

It was explained that out-of-town, independent trash collectors are not excluded from operating within the

(Continued on Page 8)