Young People Set To Handle Service

Both Junior and Senior Young People will figure prominently in the Sunday morning Worship Service at St. Mark's United Methodist Church on May 26, beginning at 10:15 o'clock.

The congregation will observe Rural Life and Soil Stewardship Sunday. Miss Judy Keller will address herself briefly to this theme.

Another youth speaker, Miss Nancy Jo Greenawalt, will share with the congregation some reflections on her experiences as a youth intern working with the pastor of the church. A solo, "Bring Back the Springtime", by Kurt Kaiser, will be sung by soprano, Miss Linda Sherk.

There also will be an emphasis in the service upon the Ascension of Christ. The Chancel Choir will sing the appropriate anthem, "Go Ye Into All the World," and the pastor, W. Richard Kohler, will entitle his meditation, "Christ's Claim on Our World."

Youth will serve as greeters and ushers for the occasion. Worshipers will be given name tags as they enter. After the service, punch and cookies will be served to give opportunity for fellowship and getting acquainted.

The community is invited to participate.

Other services of the week include:

Tuesday - 7:30, Planning meeting for the Fall Mission Festival.

Wednesday - 7:30, Mid-week Share Groups.

Macrame Demonstration Given Farm Women 8

Farm Women's Society No. 8 met at the home of Mrs. Harold Ney, Marietta R1, Saturday, May 18.

The meeting was in charge of Miss Anna Mae Eby, president, who led the group in singing "How Great Thou Art." Devotions were led by Mrs. Isabel Endslow.

Thursday - 8:00, Final Chancel Choir Rehearsal of the season.

Minutes were read by Miss Mary Grace Martin, secretary. Roll call response created interest as each one told what her pleasure was when creating with thread or yarn.

Thursday, May 16, Mrs. Clinton Eby, Mrs. Sylvia Warfel, Mrs. Charles Shank, Misses Mary Grace Martin, Anna Mae and Ruth Eby, visited Conestoga View Home, Lancaster, to entertain elderly folks there.

Kathy Hay, Middletown, and Ann Brown, Harrisburg, sang "Up With People" and beautiful portions of "The Sound of Music." Ann Brown concluded with a solo.

Sue Heinaman, a 4-H leader, demonstrated basic steps in Macrame. This art was known in the Victorian Era. Variations of designs have been created since then. Each lady had the privilege of working out the design being shown.
