

Doodling
 is a fun way
 to pass the time...

unless that's all you've got to do!

Sometimes being alone is okay . . . but loneliness is no fun. And, filling empty hours is a big job when you've got to do it yourself and all you have is doodling. For some senior citizens every hour becomes painful because they know they've been forgotten . . . They're our Forget-me-nots. Don't forget them.
