Christian Education Program Arranged At St. Mark's

Sunday, Sept. 29, has been designated as Christian Education Day at St. Mark's United Methodist Church.

At the Morning Worship Service, beginning at 10:15 a.m., special recognition will be extended to all who work in the church's Sunday

School Program throughout the year. The pastor, W. Richard Kohler, will lead the congregation in a litany of recognition.

The Chancel Choir will sing "Antiphonal Psalm" by Pfehl. The pastor's message will be entitled, "Me, A Teacher?" New members also will be received into the fellowship of St. Mark's Church.
