DONEGAL NEWS NOTES

From School Board

October 17, 1974

Twenty-six more Donegal pupils are receiving "free or reduced price" meals at district cafeterias than a year ago.

As of Sept. 19, the project called DIG, to build an auxiliary gymnasium at D.H.S. had received contributions of $18,250.21 and had unpaid bills of $11,100.

Between Sept. 6, 1974 and Oct. 1, 1974, Donegal district enrollment dropped 21, to 2,875.

Mrs. Peggy Nissley has been named to handle purchase orders for the district through the business office, taking up part of the work formerly handled by Dr. Ralph Coleman, who retired this summer.

Nov. 11 is traditional Veterans Day. The nation observes the day on Monday, Nov. 5. But, Donegal schools will observe the occasion on Friday, Nov. 8, in all buildings.

Sixty-two pupils in the district — about 2 percent — are part of "minority" groups, a state report revealed.

One hundred and eighty-four pupils are participating in fall athletic programs. As of Thursday night, Oct. 17, there had been 9 team wins, 12 losses and three ties.

J.V. football games have been discontinued for '74 because of lack of a sufficient number of boys. Only one game — with Columbia — was played.

Report cards will be sent home Nov. 7.

Florin Church Series Continues Through Week

Special Services of Spiritual Enrichment are continuing throughout this week at the Florin Church of the Brethren with the Rev. Glenn O. Hassinger, Myerstown, as the guest minister.

Services each night this week, Oct. 20-27, feature strong preaching on the theme of "What It Means to be a Member of the Kingdom" and special music by a number of the town churches. Each service begins at 7:30 p.m.

Thursday morning at 9:30 a.m., will be the last of a series of daily Bible Study groups led by Rev. Hassinger. Thursday's session will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Longenecker, Vinegar Road, Maytown.

On Saturday morning, Oct. 26, at 7 a.m., there will be a Prayer Breakfast in the Farm Diner, Rt. 230, for men and women, at which time Rev. Hassinger will bring a meditative message.

Themes and special music for the remainder of this week are: Thursday: "Jesus and Prayer", special music — Glossbrenner U.M. Church; Friday: "Jesus and Possessions", special music — Brethren Singers Quartet;

Saturday: "Jesus and the Law," special music — Church of God Joy Singers; Sunday: "Unifying Life Through Christ", special music — Mount Joy Mennonite Motet.

Baby-sitting service will be provided each evening for children up to 5 years of age. The general public is invited.

MAIL EARLY?

Christmas Reminder

A "Christmas mail early" reminder, already? Before Halloween even?

The U.S. postal service, always looking ahead to its biggest season of the year, has noted that the first of a series of mailing deadlines is this week.

International mail traveling by surface facilities — both cards and parcels — should be posted by Friday.

For those persons who plan to send military mail overseas by surface carriers, Oct. 28 is the deadline, if the items are going to the Far East — Antarctica, Australia, Burma, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, New Zealand, Okinawa, Philippines, Taiwan, Thailand and Vietnam.

There are nearly 2,000 types of bats in the world.

Two Braves Teams Win From Presidents

The Donegal Braves midget football 'B' team opened play Sunday against the Presidents by scoring a 22-6 triumph.

After falling behind, 6-0, at the start of the 2nd quarter, the Braves charged into the lead on a Steve Butz to Steve Neal pass good for 16 yards and the score. A 2-point pass from Butz to Steve Meszaros put Donegal up, 8-6.

Late in the third, Butz plunged over for six more and a repeat of the 2-pointer gave Donegal a 16-6 lead, and then at the beginning of the 4th period Meszaros squirted 50 yards for another and Donegal finished up with a 22-6 win.

The defense, led by Phil Landis, Frank Brommer, Jeff Kauffman (who recovered one fumble), and Phil Spickler played tough as nails. Tony Mann chipped in with a fumble recovery, as the defense did the job.

The 'A' team kept pace with a come-from-behind 14-12 win. Joe Butz opened the scoring with a 2-yard plunge for a 6-0 lead. However, the home team quickly tied the score and then went ahead, 12-6, at the end of the third quarter. The 4th quarter belonged to Donegal. Scott Jones plowed over for a score to knot the count at 12. Then a Ney-to Shank-back-to-Ney pass play added the 2-point conversion and the Braves held in for the win. Brian Ney and Randy Derr each recovered fumbles and Jones and Casey Krady each intercepted passes to aid the defense. Bob Pyle, Tom Weber, Eric Gerlitzki and Bob Stauffer keyed a defense that held when it counted.

The 'C' team's title hopes received a jolt when the Presidents upset the Braves, 6-0 as they took the second half kick-off and marched in for the score. The offense of Todd Butz, Ron Kennedy, John Ott and Marty Harnes couldn't get untracked enough to pull this one out. The defense, led by Rod Fellenbaum, Billy Dishart, Darrel Risberg and Jim Perry, played well but gave up one long gainer which proved fatal.

On Sunday, the 27th, the Braves will travel to Conestoga Valley for the last regular season game for 1974.

Children to Collect For UNICEF

Interested children from the Grandview and Seiler elementary Schools in Mount Joy will be collecting money for UNICEF on October 24 through 27. UNICEF is the United Nations' Children's Fund which was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize.

UNICEF is assisting more than 500 long-range programs in over 100 countries on an annual budget equivalent to what is spent on world armaments in just two hours of every day. Coins collected by the children of Mount Joy will be used to save the lives of other children.

Nine hundred million children in the developing countries, that is three of every four, lack medical attention as well as enough of the proper nutritious food and an adequate education. Through UNICEF, these children are given the care they need.

Welcome the Mount Joy children when they come to collect. They are giving their play time to help others. Your donations will be appreciated.

Two Men Enlist In Air Force

Ted E. Hower and Jaye G. Keck have enlisted in the United States Air Force and are attending basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas.

Hower is the son of Arthur Hower, 633 Wood street, and Keck is the son of Galen N. Keck, 1020 Preston Rd., Lancaster, and is a graduate of Donegal high school.

They will be assigned to training centers immediately after basic and while attending one of the Air Force schools will earn college credits from the Air Force Community College.
