

Welcome Wagon Club Holds Halloween Party At Rheems

The Mount Joy Welcome Wagon Club enjoyed an evening of Halloween fun, Wednesday, Oct. 16, at the Rheems Fire Hall. A ghost walk, apple bobbing contest, and a scary ghost story highlighted the night's events.

Costumes were judged and prizes were awarded to: Janice Shelly-funniest, Laura Barr - most gruesome, Billie A. Oxford - prettiest, and Betty Byrd - most original costume.

After the business meeting, refreshments were served including such ghostly delights as candy apples, popcorn, apple cider and delicious cakes.

Craft meetings are being held as follows: every Tuesday, 1-3 p.m. with Nancy Penkunas; every Wednesday morning, 9-12, at Linda Fox's home; every Thursday at Lee Bickford's, 1-3. The regular crafts meeting will be held at Sharon Oldfather's Oct. 24 at 8 p.m.

The next board meeting will be held, Nov. 6, 7:30 p.m. at the home of Susan Back, 120 Ridgewood Manor, R.D. 2, Manheim.

Anyone who recently moved to the area and is interested in receiving a Welcome Wagon call from a hostess, may contact Althea Bickford.

METERS

"left-hand" coin slot will accept pennies but the mechanism will not register any time on the meter for parking. (But, it will not give back the penny.) The same slot will accept nickels and the dial across the top of the meter will indicate 12 minutes of parking.

The right-hand slot, which is designed to accept only dimes, will continue to receive dimes but the meter will sanction only one hour of violation-free time.

Estimated cost of making the conversion has been set at $5 per meter. The only necessary new parts will be the decal.

Another of the revenue increasing actions last week was to move the parking meter violation fine from $1 to $2.

WATER

Engineers tell the Authority, the level of ground water in the area is down from normal.

Present elimination of the problem lies in the hopes that rains will replenish the ground water level before there is a critical problem. Long range, the solution lies in the development of two wells drilled recently west of the borough.

However, it will be six months to a year before they are ready to deliver their full potential to the borough's water system.

In the meantime, gentle rains and lots of them and, a lowering of unnecessary consumption through the spigots of local homes and industry, the Authority says, are needed.

'This and That'

birthday party so special came from the setting — the fabulous ballroom itself — a beautifully decorated room in which the women were served at some 60 huge round tables seating ten people each.

The menu was "special," too, from the fresh orange juice appetizer to the dessert of Herhsey's famous chocolate ice cream.

The tables were covered with white linen, and the centerpieces were jars of home made chow chow, jams and canned fruit arranged in an autumnal manner by the club's decorating committee.

Just a little over a year ago the Club held its first meeting at Carpenter's Inn in Elizabethtown, with 117 women present. It quickly outgrew the Inn, and met for several months at Hostetters' in Mount Joy, with 200-300-400 women sharing in the luncheon each month. It also outgrew Hostetters'.

During the summer, luncheons were held in the Dining Hall of Elizabethtown College.

Next month, Nov. 12, the group will hold a joint luncheon with the Lancaster Club at the Host Farm, hopefully returning to enlarged facilities at Hostetter's in December.

The club is interesting in its makeup. It embraces all ages, from young mothers to great-grandmothers. It includes all faiths. It has no dues, but there are generous voluntary contributions each month that help to keep full and part-time missionaries in many places of need on the American continent.

There is enthusiasm and a vibrant good will among the members, many of whom meet for coffee and prayer between the luncheons.

We salute the local Christian Women's Club, and its influence for good in our community!

Its active staff of officers is headed by Mrs. Mary Ann Ober of Elizabethtown.
