Ice Follies Set To Play At Hershey Nov. 19 to 24

The number one skating business, the Ice Follies, return to the Hersheypark Arena, Nov. 19 for nine performances through Nov. 24.

The Shipstads and Johnson skating extravaganza, in its 39th season, is the "daddy" of present day skating entertainment. Richard Dwyer, a leading star of twenty-five years, celebrating his Silver Anniversary: Mr. Frick, the Swiss master of skating comedy; Susan Berens, Karen Kresge and Suzanne Russel, all beautiful and talented performers. Jay Humphry and Atoy Wilson, both sensations on the steel blades, plus Jackie Davis, a new find.

The show is graced by the pair skating of Judy and Jim Sladky, five times North American Dance Champions, the adagio marvels, Nancy and Leandre, newcomers Don Bonacci and Cathy Mishkin, and the Richard Dwyer-Susan Berens pair. Additional comedy is supplied by Hans Leiter, the Scarecrows and the Funsters. For the children, there are the wonderful Muppets and other characters from "Sesame Street."

Dazzling production numbers whose foundation is the Ice Follies add up to two and a half hours of wonderful family entertainment at the Hersheypark Arena, November 19 through 24.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING

The Donegal School Board will hold its November meeting on Thursday evening, Nov. 21, in the D.H.S. library, beginning at 8 p.m.

December meeting of the board will be held on Thursday, Dec. 5, at the same time and place. One of the principal matters of business at that session will be re-organization for the 1975 year.

GETSWILD TURKEY

Leonard Tillman of Hershey RD1, formerly of Mount Joy, bagged a 15-pound wild turkey gobbler Thursday, Nov. 7, at noon in the Mastersonville area. He used a 20-gauge gun with No. 6 shot.
