National-Standard Posts Record Sales

For the fiscal year ended Sept. 30, National-Standard company reported record sales of $218.8 million and record earnings of $13.9 million or $3.20 per share. In the previous year, sales were $178.2 million and earnings were $6.9 million or $1.58 per share.

Fourth fiscal quarter sales and operating profits were also records, being $59.0 million and $.81 per share, respectively.

Chairman T.H. Pearce said earnings for the year included $.62 per share of nonrecurring profits that resulted from the closing of unprofitable operations and withdrawal from certain foreign activities. "National-Standard had an excellent year in spite of steel shortages and availability of purchased parts for machine assembly," Pearce said. "There was exceptional strength in our traditional business of wire
