

Pupils receive patrol awards

April Null

Mrs. June Riley's class of sixth graders at Riverview Elementary School has begun a new method of honoring the outstanding patrol person of the week. A patrol person can qualify for the honor in the following ways: being on duty every day on time; wearing a clean belt and polished badge on duty; setting an example by following all safety rules and showing exemplary behavior while in the classroom, cafeteria, halls and playground.

Casey Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner and April Null, daughter of Mrs. Frances Null, won the honor for the week of January 1.

Tammy Matheny and Kathy Way won the honor for the week of January 6. Tammy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Matheny while Kathy Way is the daughter of Mrs. Patsy Way.

Leos to show Engle photos

by Hazel Baker

Professor Edward Leos, associate photography instructor, will be the speaker for the January meeting of the Marietta Restoration Associates in the Marietta Community House, Thursday, January 16, at 8 p.m. Prof. Leos is from Penn State University and will talk on the Horace Engle collection of glass plates rediscovered by a student.

Horace Engle, a native of Marietta, was born in 1861 and lived with his family at the Engle Nurseries, located where the Armstrong Carpet Plant is now situated. The photos are of Marietta, Columbia and general Lancaster County. The public is invited to attend this session.

Collection of prints will be on exhibit at Millersville State College later this year.
