

Miller, pres. athletic assn.

William Miller was installed as president of the Marietta Youth Athletic Association.

Gordon Yohe is vice president, Winnie Bensing, secretary, Emma Penwell, treasurer, and Mervin Gutshall, equipment manager.

Three girl softball teams have been planned for this summer. Lucie Brady will manage the team of girls 8 to 12 years old, Frances Cranford, the 13 to 15 year old, and Mrs. Bensing, the 16 to 21 year olds, who will play in the York league.

Marietta Borough Council has granted permission to the Association to sponsor organized leagues for both boys and girls.

The season will run from April 4 to August 31.

The boys' baseball program will include four Midget-Midget teams, that play all games at home, one traveling Midget-Midget team for ages 8 to 11, a Junior Midget team for the 12 to 14 year olds and a Midget team for boys 14 to 16. There are some managerial spots still open for the boys' teams. Anyone interested in becoming a manager or just a helper, in any capacity, notify any member of the Association.

Sign-up campaign for both boys and girls will be at the Community House April 5th, 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. and April 12th from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. If your child is registering with us for the first time it will be necessary to bring along their Birth Certificate.

Any area adult resident who is interested in helping our organization help your children, is urged to attend.

D. Shope wins patrol honor

by Hazel Baker

Brass ensemble plays Jan. 22

The Brass Ensembles of Elizabethtown College and Messiah College will present a joint concert on Wednesday, January 22, at 7:30 p.m., in Elizabethtown's Alumni Auditorium.

Each ensemble will perform several works alone and then combine for three others, "Toccata" by Bonelli, "Providebam" by Lasso, and "Sonata XIX" by Gabrieli, according to Dr. Darrell R. Douglas, associate professor of music and conductor of the Elizabethtown group.

Richard Hiler is conductor of the Messiah ensemble.

The Concert is open to the public without charge.

Elizabethtown College's Brass Ensemble will participate in the Evensong service at the Washington Cathedral on Sunday, January 26, at 4 p.m., at the invitation of Cathedral officials.

Among the members of the Ensemble is a local student, Arthur C. Baughman, trombone, 228 N. Barbara St., Mount Joy.

Welcome Wagon coming events

by Wendy Gentile

The Mount Joy Welcome Wagon held a White Elephant Sale Wednesday, January 15, at the Rheems Fire Hall. Leftover bazaar items and candles were auctioned off.

Don't forget your household hints for Lee Bickford! Also, anyone interested in card club Thursday afternoons should contact Lee.

We wish to congratulate all the women of Welcome Wagon who contributed of their time and efforts to selling the Little Darling Candles. What a fabulous job! 424 candles were sold altogether. Lena Parker was our super seller with 49 candles. Others were Susan Back, 38, and Linda Hoover, 37. Thank you girls, and thank you Thelma Rankin for organizing and carrying out this terrific project.

Crafts will meet at 8 p.m., January 23, at Sharon Oldfather's. Macrame' owls will be made again for the benefit of those who missed last Thursdays meeting.

An informal "Wine and Cheese" Party is scheduled for January 25 at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria/conference room of the Agway Building, Route 230 W, Elizabethtown. Gray Sellers will be the host. $1.00 per person deposit will be required at this week's meeting. Call Betty Byrd for directions if needed. Bring your friends.

Interested in being bazaar chairman for 1975. Call Cherie Dillow.

Plans are being made to visit the Rheems and Schock's Nursing Homes on February 9 at 3 p.m. Bring a quarter to this weeks meeting to help buy a gift.

The next board meeting will be held at Betty Byrd's home, Mt. Pleasant Rd., February 5 at 8 p.m.

We wish to thank our sponsors who have faithfully supported our club these past few years. Through their generous contributions, we may continue to serve the people of our community and all newcomers to the area. We appreciate their efforts and hope they will remain with us in the years to come. Again, we thank you.

Anyone who recently moved to the area and is interested in receiving a Welcome Wagon call from a hostess, please contact Bea Bossler, 367-2740.
