

Jr. class presents "Time out for out Ginger"

by Catharine G. Zeller

Karen Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Thompson, Milton Grove, will play the title role in the three-act comedy, "Time Out For Ginger," to be produced by the junior class of Donegal High School on Friday and Saturday nights, February 21 and 22, in the high school auditorium.

Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Other members of the cast are Jean Bixler, David Presto, Tammy Newcomer, Susan Williams, Susan Bender, Steven Zerphey, Jeffrey Boulton, Ted Hershey and James Byrd.

The play tells the story of a fourteen-year-old girl who decides to try out for the school football team.

Her father, who always wanted to be on the team when he was in high school, sees himself in her. Since he has always wanted a son but has produced only three daughters, she becomes his "son." Through his antics he makes a fool of himself and almost loses his job. Eventually, Ginger realizes the folly of her desire. Emerging from "growing pains," she decides she wants to be a girl and enjoy the usual pursuits of a young woman. Written in terse lines, the comedy not only is relevant to modern-day ideas but also provides many laughs.

Miss Catharine Zeller, English teacher, is the faculty director. Anita Tignanelli is student director, and Vickie Lilly is stage manager.

In charge of lights is Steven Shope, while David Crankshaw supervises sound effects. Prompters are Laurie Martin, Peggy Shenk, Judy Stoltzfus and Jill Wilson.

Committee chairmen are as follows: properties, Cheryl Felty and Claudia Brandt; publicity, Jeffrey Boulton; tickets, Karen Smith; set painting, Scott Brightbill; make-up, Barbara Balt; and ushers, Jane Youtz.
