

BPW meets leaders

by Hazel Baker

Schlosser, bridge champion

Dr. David E. Schlosser of 304 E. Main St., Mount Joy, Pa., won the 140-player Individual Play championship at the American Contract Bridge League Regional Tournament being held at Bermuda's Southampton Princess Hotel. Dr. Schlosser scored an amazing 164 points, 21 more than his nearest rival, in a tournament in which more than 1,000 players are competing. Competing against Dr. Schlosser were such top stars as Julius Rosenblum, president of the World Bridge Federation; Edgar Kaplan, bridge columnist; and members of the world champion Italian Blue Team, Benito Garozzo and Giorgio Belladonna.

The Bermuda tournament ends February 9th.

"Guess Who's Coming To Dinner" was the subject of the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Club January meeting. Arranged by the Civic Participation Committee, the guests included presidents of all the Mount Joy service clubs and the Mayor, James Gingrich.

The Mayor outlined the need for boro ordinances and brought greetings to the host club.

Al Newlin, president of the Mount Joy Rotary Club stated the objective and projects it offers to the youth of the community.

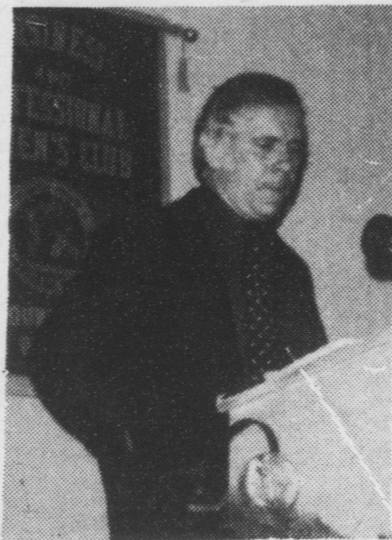

Charles Hershey, president of the Lions Club, listed the projects of his organization with the major activity as the swimming pool.

President of the Jaycees, Jeff Brown, congratulated

Jeff Brown

who won a service award for her direction of the Mount Joy Community Chorus, "A Night of Music," and the "Gibson Girls." Mrs. Dennis Fackler, represented the Joy-
