

Jim Elvin wins trophy

Jim Elvin, right and his coach, Ferdie Kuzala of Conrad Weiser, hold the two-in-one trophy which Elvin received for being the first Berks player to be named both Lineman and Back of the Week in the same season. The award was presented by the Touchdown Club of Berks County at their annual banquet, held at Stokesay Castle on January 23. Jim is the son of Dr. and Mrs. H. James Elvin, formerly of Mount Joy, now of Wernersville, Pa. He is a senior at Conrad Weiser Area High School, Robesonia, Pa. Upon graduation Jim plans to attend Albright College, Reading, Pa.

While still residing in Mount Joy, Jim played football for the Donegal Braves and received the Roy C. Wagner and S. 7 Maxwell trophies. Before moving to Wernersville he was also a member of the Donegal Indians.

PP&L NEWS

Mary D. Myers of Landisville, consumer counselor with Pennsylvania Power & Light Company at Lancaster, will retire on January 31.

Mrs. Myers started with PP&L 40 years ago as a home lighting representative at Lancaster and later became a home service representative. In 1955 she was promoted to home economist at Columbia and in 1965 moved up to senior home economist at Lancaster. She has held her latest post since 1972.

Born in Altoona, Mrs. Myers was graduated from high school in Mount Joy.

She is a charter member and past president of the Pilot Club, an international women's service organization and is on the administrative council of the Pearl Street United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Myers is the widow of Lester H. Myers, Sr., of Lancaster.

She is a member of the Lancaster Chapter 501, Order of the Eastern Star, the Lancaster Mental Health
