

by Glenn Shearer

by Stacy Nagle

Valentine Day is past, but the expression of love knows no season. Therefore, we bring you some sentimental Valentines created last week by kids at Seiler, Grandview and River-view Elementary Schools.

Local Valentine production

by Doris Rice

by David Anspach

by Jeff Way

King John eyeing empty Queen's throne

The King said, "Where is the Queen?"

by Rhonda Proctor
The crowning of the Sweetheart King and Queen took place at 10:30 a.m. February 15th at the Mount Joy Boro Hall. Kim Marie Flowers was crowned Queen and John Philip Getty was crowned King.

Kim is the daughter of Mr. Norman Flowers, and John is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Stephen Getty. Each of the winners received a $25 savings bond and flowers compliments of the Joyce-ettes.

The first runners-up were Sherill Beth Hanner,

Queen Kim was unable to attend coronation, because she was sick.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hanner, and Nicholas Sargen, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Sargen. The second runners-up were Angela Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rice, and Andrew Lee Ober, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ober. Each of the runners-up received a certificate of recognition.

A check in the amount of $355 was presented to Mrs. Nettie Germer, of the Donegal Dental Clinic.

Mount Joy Library busy place

There is in Mount Joy a thriving literary industry just a little more than 10 years old which last year handled 22,600 books. This busy industry is the Mount Joy Library Center located at 22 East Main Street.

Although the library itself does not house a tremendous number of volumes at any one time, it is part of the Lancaster County Library system, and can secure almost any book a Mount Joy reader might want in a day's time.

Not only are all the books in the Lancaster County Library available to users of the Mount Joy Library, but also books in college libraries and the state library in Harrisburg.

A membership in the Mount Joy Library Center carries all the privileges of the Lancaster County Library.

Every Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. there is a Story Hour for pre-schoolers, which is supervised by Mrs. James Heilig.

Organized by local citizens in 1964 the local library center is run by a board headed by Father Donald M. Whitesell, president; Mr. Maurice Bailey, vice president; Mrs. John Rosenfeld, secretary; Mr. William Eby, treasurer; Mrs. Donald Betty; Mrs. James Roberts; Mrs. Benjamin Horst, Jr.; Mr. Richard Swartz; Mrs. John Hamilton; Miss Anne Milanof; Mrs. Warren Foley; and Miss Mary Jane Hoffer.

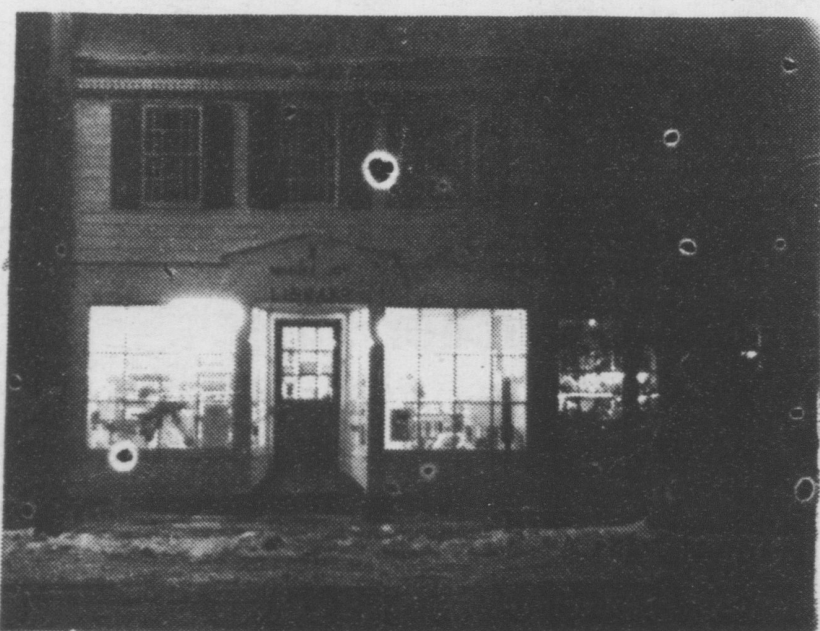

There are three paid librarians at the center, which is open weekdays from 3 to p.m.: Mrs. Frank Tyndall, Mrs. Jane Emery, and Mr.

Robert Schenck, Jr. The following people work for the library as volunteers: Miss Eunice Herr, Mrs. Helen Emminger, Miss Thea Rodenhaver, Mrs. Robert Feltenbaum, Mrs. Lillian Maxwell, and Miss Anne Milanof.

The library center building is owned by Henry G. Carpenter, who, according to board members, has been extremely generous and helpful to the library since its founding.

The center will operate in 1975 on a budget of $8800, which is contributed by the Borough of Mount Joy, state aid, local industries, organizations, individual donors, and fines charged for overdue books.

Busy night at library

Mrs. Robert Mark, daughter Jean, & Mrs. Jane Emery

Send news to Bulletin

We need more news about more people in The Susquehanna Bulletin.

We want news that will interest YOU.

So, why don't you mail or phone us about what YOU, YOUR family, or YOUR friends are doing.

If it's interesting to you, it will be interesting to our readers.

Because you are our readers.

Send us your news.