Cairns tells of camping joy

by Wendy Gentile

The Mount Joy Welcome Wagon held its monthly dinner meeting Feb. 19 at the Mount Joy Legion. After an enjoyable meal and business meeting, Mr. Donald Cairns spoke to the women about the Joys of Family Camping. He also showed slides of his travels throughout the United States and answered the many questions that were asked.

A nominating committee has been appointed to select persons to run for offices or chairmanships in the upcoming elections. Anyone interested should contact Linda Fox, chairman, 653-1842.

The Welcome Wagon decided to make a donation to the fund set up for Ed and Jean Forry. Also the club will join the Community Council again this year.

Crafts will meet at Linda Fox's, Feb. 27, at 8 p.m. Judy Miller will instruct the girls in making macrame plant holders. For further details, just call Linda.

The club will meet again March 19, at the Rheems

Fire Hall for a dessert and bingo nite. Members will be asked to bring a special dessert and a $1.00 surprise gift.

The next board meeting is set for March 5 at 8 p.m. in the home of Nancy Penkunus.

New Churchmen in Marietta

"The New Churchmen and Teresa" from Harrisonburg, Va., will be singing at the Morning Worship Service of The English Presbyterian Church of Marietta, on Sunday morning March 2nd at 11 o'clock.

The public is cordially invited to come and hear them sing. A free will offering will be taken.
