Leos describes Engle pictures

Edward Leos, a professor from Penn State, was guest speaker for the Marietta Restoration Associates at the Millersville State College Student Memorial Center. With the use of slides Mr. Leos showed scenes taken in Marietta and the surrounding area during the late 19th century by Horace Engle, a native of Marietta, who used a buttonhole camera. Engle's foresight in the art of photography was far ahead of his time.

Engle died in 1949; his photographic works were discovered by a student attending Penn State who used them for her thesis.
